

DELIGHT

BY AMY LUDWIG VANDERWATER

Nature does not have a lost and found table
for summer feathers
and so
the woodpecker
who dropped
this black and white
piece of himself
has let it go forever.
A bit of beauty
a spotted charm
on the sidewalk
for free.
Found a feather.
Finder keepers.
Lucky me.

R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Twentieth Century Drama Simon Trussler, 1983-04-01 A compendium of information on all the main events individuals political groupings and issues of the 20th century It provides a guide to current thinking on important historical topics and personalities within the period and offers a guide to further reading     Extramural Adrian Barlow, 2012-02-23 More than a personal account of a career in education but an argument for an idea Extramural is an argument for the lifelong pursuit of knowledge and the invaluable part Cambridge Institute of Continuing Education has played in helping people pursue this Barlow explains how the study of literature as thoughts expressed in language is central to education and utilises his own vast knowledge of literature from Tom Paine and John Ruskin to Alan Bennett and E M Forster to illustrate the depth that the study of literature can bring to continuing one's own development A stimulating and engaging exploration of the world of adult literary education Barlow offers the reader the chance to gain an insight into a world that depends on the support of those participating     Robert Frost , In this volume Lesley Lee Francis granddaughter of Robert Frost brings to life the Frost family's idyllic early years Through their own words we enter the daily lives of Robert known as RF to his family and friends his wife Elinor and their four children Lesley Carol Irma and Marjorie The result is a meticulously researched and beautifully written evocation of a fleeting chapter in the life of a literary family Taught at home by their father and mother the Frost children received a remarkable education Reared on poetry nurtured on the world of the imagination and instructed in the art of direct observation the children produced an exceptional body of writing and artwork in the years between 1905 and 1915 Drawing upon previously unexamined journals notebooks letters and the little magazine entitled The Bouquet produced by the Frost children and their friends Francis shows how the genius of Frost was enriched by his interactions with his children Francis depicts her grandfather as a generous devoted and playful man with a striking ability to communicate with his children and grandchildren She traces the family s adventures from their farm years in New Hampshire through their nearly three years in England This enchanting evocation of the Frost family s life together makes more poignant the unforeseen personal tragedies that would befall its members in later years John Drinkwater, 1882-1937 Times Bookshop (London, England),1962      Poetry by American Women 1975-1989 Joan Reardon,1990-12
