Task Centered Casework

William James Reid, Laura Epstein

Task Centered Casework:

Problems, Tasks and Outcomes E. Matilda Goldberg, Jane Gibbons, Ian Sinclair, 2021-11-07 In the 1980s although most social workers organised their time and described their work in terms of cases research studies had cast serious doubts on the efficacy of working in this way As a result there had been growing anxiety about what social workers do what they ought to do and the training they needed Task centred casework was an approach to social work which proposed a solution to some aspects of this dilemma Growing out of the surprising results of an American research study it broke free from the traditional psycho analytic approach to casework It aimed at clarity of purpose a concentration on the clients perceptions of the problems openness about clients and helpers intentions and agreement about what is to be done and achieved within a specified time Originally published in 1985 this book brings together three British studies that accompanied and in some respects pioneered the introduction of task centred casework into the United Kingdom The studies describe and evaluate task centred casework with social services department clients with young people on probation and with men and women referred to hospital after poisoning themselves The research suggests what task centred casework can and cannot achieve describes how clients experience it and seeks to define the skills it requires The studies also provide some reasons why many previous studies of social work have failed to find evidence for social work effectiveness The book uses much case material to illustrate methods of task centred casework and its outcomes as seen by clients social workers and an independent outsider It should still be of interest to social workers teachers of social work and social work students More generally it will be welcomed by all those who are interested in building social work on a surer basis than anecdote and fashion

Task-centered Casework William James Reid, Laura Epstein, 1972      The Theory and Practice of Task Centered Casework John Raymond Ashton, 1981      Training in Task-centered Casework Nancy Sharp Dickinson, 1983      The Corsini Encyclopedia of Psychology and Behavioral Science, Volume 4 W. Edward Craighead, Charles B. Nemeroff, 2002-11-11 A complete reference to the fields of psychology and behavioral science Volume 4 is the final volume in The Corsini Encyclopedia of Psychology and Behavioral Science series Providing psychologists teachers researchers and students with complete reference for over 1 200 topics across four volumes this resource is invaluable for both clinical and research settings Coverage includes conditions assessments scales diagnoses treatments and more including biographies on psychologists of note and psychological organizations from across the globe The Third Edition has been updated to reflect the growing impact of neuroscience and biomedical research providing a highly relevant reference for the highest standard of care      Research Methods for Evidence-Based Practice John S. Wodarski, Laura M. Hopson, 2011-10-31 This practical and student friendly text teaches social work students the concepts and skills needed to apply research methods in their practice with clients It offers students an enhanced understanding of the research process and equips them with the necessary tools and skills to evaluate studies translate relevant behavioral science knowledge into practice principles and implement evaluation procedures in their daily practice. Renowned authors Wodarski and Hopson use social work research methods to examine emerging issues in the field as they pertain to evidence based practice such as curriculum development and funding. This approach yields a unique analysis that differs from others on the market because it fully integrates evidence based practice methodology into the heart of the text rather than in a single chapter.

The Task-Centred Book Peter Marsh, 2005. Task centred social work is one of the best known and most strongly supported approaches to social work practice. The model fits well with the long standing emphasis in social work on empowerment as well as with more recent pressure for evidence based practice. This text is a radical departure from traditional literature on social work methods. The main reference point is the voice of practitioners, service users and carers as researched and developed by the authors over twenty years. Case studies are used throughout the book to build on the experiences of practitioners and the people with whom they have worked and to demonstrate practical skills. The Task Centred Book is a core text for both undergraduate social work courses and continuing professional development training as well as being a practical book for the active professional which will support the development and implementation of task centred practice.

Task-Centred Social Work Mark Doel, Peter Marsh, 2017-03-02. Task centred practice is a forward thinking goal orientated approach to social work. It is a practice based approach built on research which reflects the new mood being developed in the social work field and it has now been successfully used in a wide variety of settings and circumstances. The theme of Task Centred Social Work is partnership exploring the principles on which task centred practice is based while offering clear and practical guidance for work whether with people who seek help with social problems or with those who are involuntary clients. The book describes in detail the sequence of work to help clients move from present problems to future goals. This is illustrated by a case study which runs through the chapters and uses an imaginative recording style. Checklists and bibliographies are also used to aid understanding. The authors respond to the model's critics and explore both the scope and the limitations of the task centred practice. Social professionals whether working in practice or in training settings will find this book an invaluable aid to the development of successful social practice work.

Van Richmond Naar Reid Louwerus Jan Jagt, 2008-03-11. In 1916 legde Mary Richmond met haar boek Social Diagnosis de basis voor maatschappelijk werk als beroep. Zestig jaar later ontwikkelde William Reid de taakgerichte hulpverlening kortweg het TGH model. Deze uitgave Van Richmond naar Reid beschrijft de relatie tussen theorie en praktijk binnen de taakgerichte hulpverlening tegen de achtergrond van de geschiedenis van het maatschappelijk werk. Veel aandacht gaat naar het handelen van maatschappelijk werkers en de theoretische onderbouwing daarvan. TGH is een van de weinige modellen voor maatschappelijk werk met een onderzoeksgeschiedenis van enkele decennia. Reid en zijn collega Epstein legden in de jaren zeventig de theoretische en empirische basis voor het werkmodel dat de activering van cliënten centraal stelt. Aspecten als probleemoriëntatie en prioriteitenkeuze, tijdslimiet, taakontwikkeling in dialoog met de cliënt, contractering en gestructureerde aanpak kregen stapsgewijs vorm. Zowel academici als professionals uit de praktijk droegen bij aan de ontwikkeling van TGH Vaak wordt gesteld dat het maatschappelijk werk geen systematische body of knowledge of gevalideerde methodieken kent Dit boek maakt duidelijk dat TGH wel degelijk is gebaseerd op kennis uit onderzoek en door onderzoek is gevalideerd Van Richmond naar Reid laat zien hoe TGH geworteld is in het kennisdomein dat sinds Richmond is ontwikkeld Aan de orde komen publicaties van de vrouwen die verder gingen in het spoor van Mary Richmond zoals Hamilton Robinson Hollis en Perlman Ook Nederlandse pioniers als Muller Lulofs en Adriani krijgen aandacht Een belangrijke plaats is ingeruimd voor het werk van Marie Kamphuis die niet alleen bruggen bouwde tussen het maatschappelijk werk in de VS en Nederland maar ook het werk van Reid in Nederland introduceerde Advancing Social Work Practice in the Health Care Field Gary Rosenberg, Helen Rehr, 2012-12-06 Commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Department of Social Work at the Mount Sinai Medical Center in New York City this innovative and exciting book traces the growth of the social work mission and the development of vanguard social work programs at Mount Sinai Leading social work educators and practitioners look at where the profession is today and speculate on where it might be going Each article is new and original to this book and each contributor is a distinguished representative from his specialty in the field Advancing Social Work Practice in the Health Care Field with its wealth of historical practical and theoretical information reflects today's state of the art in selected areas and should serve as an information source not only for practitioners and administrators but also for educators who are committed to enhancing the social work services and the quality of social health care

Woods, Florence Hollis, 1990 Textbook Social Casework, 1988 Task-centred Social Work Mark Doel, Peter Marsh, 1992 The theme of Task Centred Social Work is partnership exploring the principles on which task centred practice is based while offering clear and practical guidance for work whether with people who seek help with social problems or with those who are involuntary clients The book describes in detail the sequence of work to help clients move from present problems to future goals This is illustrated by a case study which runs through the chapters and uses an imaginative recording style Checklists and bibliographies are also used to aid understanding The authors respond to the model's critics and explore both the scope and the limitations of the task centred practice Effective Casework Practice Joel Fischer, 1978 Research Methods for Clinical Social Workers John S. Wodarski, 1997 Responding to growing challenges in social work to base clinical practice on empirical evidence John Wodarski has developed this research textbook to illustrate the value of empirical perspectives in social work practice and to facilitate the integration of research and practice Written in an accessible style the text guides the reader through the development and implementation of various types of empirical research designs The volume provides concrete tools for effective intervention and builds problem solving and evaluative components into the intervention process incorporating a much needed progressive and systematic approach to social work education
