Sustainability in Food and Water Kensuke Fukushi,K M Hassan,R Honda,Akimasa Sumi,2010-09-02

Food and water security issues are regarded as sine qua non if a society wants to promote health, peace and prosperity. People who are well fed are also people with the means to change their situation. However, this is still an immense challenge for Asia, especially in the global environmental perspective in the 21st century. People around the globe will be facing a combination of problems concerning both environmental as well as social changes; therefore, the policy for future food and water security has to be upgraded in an integrated and holistic way. The need to put into perspective the ever-mounting body of new information on environmental security of food and water issues in Asia beyond the boundaries of separate disciplines provided the impetus for the development of this book. It is a compilation of selected articles from two international symposiums entitled Food and Water Sustainability in China 2007 and Food and Water Sustainability in Asia 2008 which were held in Macau, China. Eminent scientists/researchers from different parts of Asia spoke at the symposium on topics such as the challenges in sustainable water resource management, future projection of development strategies for series increased yield of food grains by rainwater management in arid lands, multi-functional role of rice paddy area for food and water sustainability, the impact of biofuel production on food security, reclaimed wastewater for sustainable urban water use, heavy metal removal from contaminated soil and water, and adaptation strategies to cope with the climate change issues for food and water.

Innovation Strategies and Organizational Culture in Tourism Marco Valeri,2024-02-06 This book analyzes the importance of innovation as the key driver of sustained success in the tourism industry and the knowledge sharing process. It explores its impact on innovation capability and innovation performance of organizations. With 12 chapters written by 22 contributors, the book offers international reflections. The first part of the book focuses on innovation management strategies and analyzes the importance of innovation as the key driver of sustained success in the tourism industry. Tourism and hospitality firms develop innovations with specific objectives and goals in mind and have several approaches to measure performance accordingly. The second part of the book focuses on knowledge sharing through case studies. Chapters analyze the knowledge sharing process and its impact on the innovation capability and innovation performance of the firms. The essence of knowledge sharing is to provide a framework for management in their attempt to develop and enhance their organizational capability to innovate in tourism. This invaluable book provides both theoretical and practical insights into innovation strategies and knowledge sharing in tourism. It will interest students, scholars and researchers as well as executives and practitioners in the field of tourism and hospitality management. Australian Books in Print 1999 K G
