The Red Wind Howls Tsering Dondrup, 2025-06-17 A remarkable novel by one of Tibet's foremost authors The Red Wind Howls is a courageous and gripping portrayal of Tibetan suffering under Mao's regime The story delves deep into forbidden history spanning the famine of the Great Leap Forward the Cultural Revolution and most taboo of all the 1958 Amdo rebellion when Tibetans rose in armed revolt against the Chinese state Tsering Dondrup self published the book in 2006 because no publisher would risk accepting it When the authorities caught wind all copies were confiscated and the author faced severe reprisals He lost his job as head of the local archives his passport was confiscated and he has been under close surveillance ever since This powerful novel is set in part in the punitive labor camps to which Tibetans were sent after the failed rebellion where many perished from starvation or forced labor Inside and outside the camps it depicts with dark humor a world of informers cruelty and score settling against the backdrop of immeasurable environmental devastation and the destruction of traditional Tibetan ways of life The novel draws on extensive interviews conducted by the author and the rhythms of oral storytelling are reflected in its fragmented narrative style which jumps back and forth between periods and events An unparalleled account of the Chinese Communist Party's takeover of Tibet The Red Wind Howls is both a richly imaginative work of fiction and a vital piece of historical testimony
