Temptation Of Christ:

The Last Temptation of Christ Nikos Kazantzakis, 2012-03-20 Spiritual dynamite San Francisco Chronicle A searing soaring shocking novel Time The internationally renowned novel about the life and death of Jesus Christ Hailed as a masterpiece by critics worldwide The Last Temptation of Christ is a monumental reinterpretation of the Gospels that brilliantly fleshes out Christ's Passion This literary rendering of the life of Jesus Christ has courted controversy since its publication by depicting a Christ far more human than the one seen in the Bible He is a figure who is gloriously divine but earthy and human a man like any other subject to fear doubt and pain In elegant thoughtful prose Nikos Kazantzakis one of the greats of modern literature follows this Jesus as he struggles to live out God's will for him powerfully suggesting that it was Christ's ultimate triumph over his flawed humanity when he gave up the temptation to run from the cross and willingly laid down his life for mankind that truly made him the venerable redeemer of men An Inquiry Into the Nature and Design

Salvation through Temptation describes the development of predominant Greek and Latin Christian conceptions of temptation and of the work of Christ to heal and restore humankind in the context of that temptation focusing on Maximus the Confessor and Thomas Aquinas as well developed examples of Greek and Latin thought on these matters Maximus and

Thomas represent two trajectories concerning the woundedness of human emotionality in the wake of the primordial human sin Heidgerken argues that Maximus stands in essential continuity with earlier Greek ascetic theology which conceives of the weakness of fallen humankind in demonological categories so that the Pauline law of sin is bound to external demonic agents that act upon the human mind through thoughts desires and sensory impressions For Thomas on the other hand this wound consists primarily of an internal disordering of the faculties that results from the withdrawal of original grace concupiscence or the fomes peccati Yet even in this framework the devil plays a significant role in Thomas s account of postlapsarian temptation On the basis of these differing frameworks for human temptation Heidgerken demonstrates the centrality of Christ s exemplarity in the Greek account and the centrality of Christ s moral perfections in the Latin account As a consequence of these emphases the Greek tradition of Maximus places distinct limits on the ability of human emotionality even that of Christ to be perfected in this life whereas Thomas s approach allows Christ to completely embody a perfected form of human emotionality in his earthly life Reciprocally Thomas s account of Christ s moral perfections and virtue places distinct limits on his affirmation of Christ s experience of postlapsarian temptation whereas Maximus s account allows for Christ to experience interior forms of temptation that more closely mirror the concrete moral experiences and circumstances of fallen human beings Salvation through Temptation recommends a retrieval of early ascetic theology and demonology as the best contemporary systematic and ecumenically viable approach to Christ s temptation and victory over the devil
