American women were powerless victims of imperialism elite women had access to the predominant philosophies of their time traveled around the globe and wrote about their experiences This book examines how an Argentinian writer together with an English and an American writer manipulate their bourgeois identity to inhabit the male dominated sphere of print culture By travelling and publishing travel narratives the three traveling women writers search for empowerment to establish their authority as writers and shapers of knowledge in literature Utilizing several concepts and criticisms including Aristotle s rhetoric Foucault s theories travel writing criticism postcolonial discourse and feminist literary criticism this volume attempts to challenge old fashioned archetypes and confinements of gender for traveling women writers in the nineteenth century
