Movies and Midrash Wendy I. Zierler, 2017-08-16 Brings popular cinema and Jewish religious texts into a meaningful dialogue Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief but Wendy I Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective exploring what Jewish tradition text and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication Zierler turns that process around beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought Films covered include The Truman Show truth Memento memory Crimes and Misdemeanors sin Magnolia confession and redemption The Descendants birthright Forrest Gump cleverness and simplicity and The Hunger Games creation of humanity in God's image among others This is a groundbreaking work of originality insight and high quality It will be of great importance not only for Jewish readers but also for non Jewish readers who long for a non Christian perspective on popular film I loved this book Eric Michael Mazur editor Encyclopedia of Religion and Film

A Lifetime of Genesis Henry A. Zoob, 2016-12-22 For many readers of the Bible there are two major obstacles to the enjoyment of scripture comprehension and relevancy In A Lifetime of Genesis Rabbi Zoob seeks to help the reader overcome these obstacles In clear logical prose Rabbi Zoob explains the course of the Covenant of Abraham in Genesis and how each major player Abraham Isaac Jacob Joseph Sarah Rebekah Rachel and Leah has an impact on the development and continuity of the Covenant of Abraham He solves the relevancy problem by sharing stories from his life that are connected to the patriarchal and matriarchal events and themes in each previous chapter For example following an analysis of the challenge of infertility that Abraham and Sarah faced he tells the story of how he and his wife Barbara struggled through thirteen years of childlessness And after the chapter on how Jacob wrestled with the angel and the many challenges in his life Rabbi Zoob recalls his sibling struggles with his brother and his wrestling with seasonal depression Rabbi Zoob hopes that his use of this midrashic process to discover personal insights will encourage the reader to do the same
