Place     Under Cover of Darkness Amy Helen Bell, 2024-11-05 A gripping new history of London during the Blackout revealing the violent crime that spread across the capital under the cover of darkness Fear was the unacknowledged spectre haunting the streets of London during the Second World War fear not only of death from the German bombers circling above but of violence at the hands of fellow Londoners in the streets below Mass displacement the anonymity of shelters and the bomb scarred landscape offered unprecedented opportunities for violent crime In this absorbing sometimes shocking account Amy Helen Bell uncovers the hidden stories of murder and violence that were rife in wartime London Bell moves through the city examining the crimes in their various locations from domestic violence in the home to robberies in the blacked out streets and fights in pubs and clubs She reveals the experiences of women children and the elderly and focuses on the lives of the victims as well as their deaths This groundbreaking study transforms our understanding of the ways in which war made people vulnerable not just to the enemy but to each other

Policing Notting Hill Tony Moore, 2013-07-24 Notting Hill is one of the most sought after locations in London But its progress from ghetto to gentrification spans half a century within which it was one of the most turbulent places in Britain plagued by decline disadvantage unsolved killings riots illegal drugs underground bars or shebeens prostitution no go areas and racial tension It was also populated by characters such as self styled community organizer Frank Crichlow slum landlord Peter Rachman Christine Keeler the Angry Brigade hustlers such as Lucky Gordon and Johnny Edgecombe the activist Michael X later executed in Trinidad and the occasional radical lawyer It was the location of the racist murder of Kelso Cochrane the litigation minded Mangrove Restaurant the brief surge of Black Power in the UK and most notably the iconic Notting Hill Carnival with its heady mix of festivity excitement street crimes potential for disorder and confrontations with the police So what was it like operating in this Symbolic Location In this book Tony Moore one of those in charge of policing Notting Hill shows how the area continually adapted to challenges that first began after the Empire Windrush arrived in England carrying immigrants who were initially met by signs saying No Coloured but for whom Notting Hill became an area of choice It is a wide ranging account of the factors in play at a time of unprecedented social change told from the perspective of an insider based on prodigious research including in relation to hitherto unpublished materials and personal communications Tony Moore is well fitted to write a history of Notting Hill and its relationship with the Metropolitan Police Lord Blair of Boughton All Saints Road in Notting Hill is one of those areas of London where crime is at its worst where drug dealing is intolerably overt and where the racial ingredient is at its most potent Sir Kenneth Newman Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police From the late sixties until recently All Saints Road was to drugs what Hatton Garden is to diamonds Robert Hardman The Spectator

Directory of World Cinema: Britain 2 Neil Mitchell, 2015-01-01 The first volume of the Directory of World Cinema Britain provided an overview of British cinema from its earliest days to the present In this the second volume the contributors focus on specific periods and trace the evolutions of individual genres and directors A complementary edition rather than an update of its predecessor the book offers essays on war and family films as well as on LGBT cinema and representations of disability in British films Contributors consider established British directors such as Ken Loach and Danny Boyle as well as newcomer Ben Wheatley who directed the fabulously strange A Field in England This volume also shines the spotlight on the British Film Institute and its role in funding preservation and education in relation to British cinema A must read for any fan of film the history of the United Kingdom or international artistic traditions Directory of World Cinema Britain 2 will find an appreciative audience both within and outside academia

Adult Themes Anne Etienne, Benjamin Halligan, Christopher Weedman, 2023-08-24 Between the late 1950s and mid 1970s British cinema experienced an explosion of X certificated films In parallel with an era marked by social political and sexual ferment and upheaval British filmmakers and censors pushed and guarded the permissible limits of violence horror revolt and sexuality on screen Adult Themes is the first volume entirely devoted to the exploration of British X certificate films across this transformative period since identified as the long 1960s How did the British Board of Film Censors harried on one side by the censorious and moralistic and beset on the other by demands for greater artistic freedom oversee and manage this provocative body of films How did the freedoms and restrictions of the X certificate hasten determine and reshape post war British cinema into an artistic exploitative and unapologetically adult medium Contributors to this collection consider these central questions as they take us to swinging parties on youthful crime sprees into local council meetings on police raids of cinemas and around Soho strip clubs and introduce us to mass murderers lesbian vampires apoplectic protestors eroticised middle aged women and rebellious working class men Adult Themes examines both the workings and negotiations of British film censorship the limits of artistic expression and a wider culture of X certificate cinema This is an important volume for students and scholars of British Film History and censorship Media Studies the 1960s and Cultural and Sexuality Studies while simultaneously an entertaining read for all connoisseurs of British cinema at its most vivid and scandalous
