The Ghost Diviners:

The Ghost Diviners Elisabeth Mace,1977 Women's Divination in Biblical Literature Esther J. Hamori,2015-01-01

Divination the use of special talents and techniques to gain divine knowledge was practiced in many different forms in ancient Israel and throughout the ancient world The Hebrew Bible reveals a variety of traditions of women associated with divination This sensitive and incisive book by respected scholar Esther J Hamori examines the wide scope of women's divinatory activities as portrayed in the Hebrew texts offering readers a new appreciation of the surprising breadth of women's arts of knowledge in biblical times Unlike earlier approaches to the subject that have viewed prophecy separately from other forms of divination Hamori's study encompasses the full range of divinatory practices and the personages who performed them from the female prophets and the medium of En dor to the matriarch who interprets a birth omen and the wise women of Tekoa and Abel and more In doing so the author brings into clearer focus the complex rich and diverse world of ancient Israelite divination
