The Gift Of Self:

The Gift of Self Marion D. Hanks,1974      The Gift Aafke E. Komter,1996 What moves us to give gifts to other people The Gift brings together perspectives on gift exchange and reciprocity from different social scientific disciplines The first part of this book contains anthropological and sociological classics on gift giving and reciprocity In the second part the focus is on social psychological theories and on empirical research on gift giving in Western society Finally the main concepts underlying gift exchange reciprocity self interest and altruism are discussed Here the focus is on fundamental assumptions about human nature Altruism and self interest turn out to be much more interwoven than we are inclined to think

Passiontide Sermons Henry Parry Liddon,1891      The Homilist; or, The pulpit for the people, conducted by D. Thomas. Vol. 1-50; 51, no. 3- ol. 63 David Thomas,1874      Eucharist and Receptive Ecumenism Kimberly Hope Belcher,2020-10-15 All doctrinal development and debate occurs against the background of Christian practice and worship By attending to what Christians have done in the eucharist Kimberly Belcher provides a new perspective on the history of eucharistic doctrine and Christian divisions today Stepping back from the metaphysical approaches that divide the churches she focuses on a phenomenological approach to the eucharist and a retrieval of forgotten elements in Ambrose s and Augustine s work The core of the eucharist is the act of giving thanks to the Father for the covenant and for the world This unitive core allows for significant diversity on questions about presence sacrifice ecclesiology and ministry Belcher shows that the key is humility about what we know and what we do not which gives us a willingness to receive differences in Christian teachings as gifts that will allow us to move forward in a new way      The Visible and the Revealed Jean-Luc Marion,2009-08-25 In The Visible and the Revealed Jean Luc Marion brings together his most significant papers dealing with the relationship between philosophy and theology Covering the ground from some of his earliest writings on this topic to very recent reflections they are particularly useful for understanding the progression of Marion s thought on such topics as the saturated phenomenon and the possibility of something like Christian Philosophy The book contains his seminal pieces on the saturated phenomenon and on the gift although the essays also explore more recent developments of his thought on these topics Several chapters explicitly explore the boundary line between philosophy and theology or their mutual enrichment and influence In one of the final pieces The Banality of Saturation Marion considers some of the most recent objections brought against his notion of the saturated phenomenon and responds to them in detail suggesting that saturated phenomena are neither as rare nor as inflexible as often assumed The work contains two chapters not previously available in English and brings together several other pieces previously translated but now difficult to find For readers interested in the relation between the two disciplines this is indispensable reading      The Gift of Self: an Address ... J. B. Pearson,1894
