The Gardeners Scotland Scottish Connection:

Connecting Scotland's History Anna Groundwater,2025-05-30 What was happening elsewhere in the world when Robert the Bruce was outlawed and Mary Queen of Scots lost her head When Genghis Khan was on the warpath and Ivan the Terrible was the Russian czar what was happening in Scotland Find the answers to these questions in 2 000 years of Scottish history presented alongside what was happening in the rest of the world By placing events in Scotland in relation to those elsewhere we can see what is different or distinctive about Scotland s experience Simultaneously we can also see where movements in Scottish history were part of wider cultural or political change in Europe and beyond John Knox s fiery sermons of the 1560s were connected into a wider Protestant Reformation but they also represented a singularly Scottish version of a European phenomenon Connecting Scotland s History also gives us a history of many Scotlands We see the hybrid nature of a country where multiple peoples have come together in a distinctively Scottish mixture From the Gaels Picts and Norse people to more recent influxes from England Ireland continental Europe and beyond Scotland s history tells us of internal connections as well as connections between Scotland and the wider world

Who Made the Scottish

Enlightenment? Colin Russell,2014-10-29 The Scottish Enlightenment is often portrayed as elitist and Edinburgh based with no universally agreed beginning or end Additionally the Philosophers and scholars the great Scottish Enlightenment figures sometimes obscure significant contributions from other disciplines so that the achievements of a wider conception of the Scottish Enlightenment are not universally known Sir Walter Scott also recognised that his nation the peculiar features of whose manners and character are daily melting and dissolving into that of her sister and ally had an identity crisis Both issues are addressed in this enquiry which seeks to highlight the scale and breadth of the Scottish Enlightenment whilst posing the question as to how Scottish identity can be preserved

Glasnevin House

Vivienne Keely,2014-06-02 The story of Glasnevin House and Demesne now Holy Faith Convent is intertwined with the development of the area from the time of the early monks through the medieval period when it was a farm of Christ Church to the Georgian building of Mitchell and its nineteenth century occupancy by the Lindsay family and the Sacred Heart sisters The story continues with the arrival of the Holy Faith sisters in 1865 and their ongoing stewardship and development of the land As this book opens with the contemplation of its surroundings so it closes with the description of the new centre which draws on natural beauty and the traditional spiritual influences that help us better engage with the modern world

T. Connolly,2021-11-29 The Green City and Social Injustice examines the recent urban environmental trajectory of 21 cities in Europe and North America over a 20 year period It analyses the circumstances under which greening interventions can create a new set of inequalities for socially vulnerable residents while also failing to eliminate other environmental risks and impacts Based on fieldwork in ten countries and on the analysis of core planning policy and activist documents and data the book offers a critical view of the growing green planning orthodoxy in the Global North It highlights the entanglements of this tenet with neoliberal municipal policies including budget cuts for community initiatives long term green spaces and housing for the most fragile residents and the focus on large scale urban redevelopment and high end real estate investment It also discusses hopeful experiences from cities where urban greening has long been accompanied by social equity policies or managed by community groups organizing around environmental justice goals and strategies The book examines how displacement and gentrification in the context of greening are not only physical but also socio cultural creating new forms of social erasure and trauma for vulnerable residents Its breadth and diversity allow students scholars and researchers to debunk the often depoliticized branding and selling of green cities and reinsert core equity and justice issues into green city planning a much needed perspective Building from this critical view the book also shows how cities that prioritize equity in green access in secure housing and in bold social policies can achieve both environmental and social gains for all Scottish Life and Society: Scotland's domestic life Susan Storrier,2000 Examines the variety in Scottish home life and considers what has shaped its society This book in fourteen volumes aims to examine the interlocking strands of history language and traditional culture within an international context and their contribution to the making of a national identity
