The Gift Of Easter:

Commemorative Journal: The Gift of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Sofia Cavalletti, Gianna Gobbi, Introduction by Mary Mirrione, 2024-06-07 Since Sofia Cavalletti and Gianna Gobbi founded the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd CGS in Rome seventy years ago they approached children's catechesis with a focus on Scripture and liturgy and solidly based their approach on the Montessori principles of education CGS is a gift and legacy that Sofia and Gianna have bestowed on generations of adults and children around the world who have fallen in love with Jesus the Good Shepherd In recognition of seventy years of CGS and of forty years as a national association CGSUSA has compiled the commemorative journal The Gift of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd The heart of this journal comprises a collection of previously unpublished excerpts from Sofia's personal correspondence with translator Patricia Coulter covering various reflections on life and on the nature of the Good Shepherd Catechesis itself Also included are Coulter's observations of Gianna's work with children in Rome CGS members and catechists will appreciate Sofia and Gianna's long and deep experience of living the Catechesis joyfully and fruitfully with adults and children alike THE GIFT OF MY HEART TO YOURS Cindy Toth, 2016-11-22 This is a collection of more of my work most of the poems are written about my family and my pets There are a mixture of themes throughout the collection There are two stories I tried my hand at short story writing I mostly have written again my feelings and my emotions in poems Hope you will enjoy my second collection of poetry There is some Christmas poems and there is a poem about my marriage the happiness I feel about the Holiday season and my joy of getting married to my best friend and soul mate The Gift of Easter Floyd W. Thatcher, 1976 The Gift in Sixteenth-century France Natalie Zemon Davis, 2000 In this gem of a book Natalie Zemon Davis explores the role of gifts in Renaissance France From the King's bounty to the beggar's alms from the lavish feasting and display of civic dignitaries to the humble tokens exchanged by peasant bride and groom the giving and receiving of gifts then as now held tremendous significance Full of vignettes which illuminate life and belief in the sixteenth century The Gift examines how the giving of presents functioned at all levels of society As they do today people evaluated gifts all the time their own gifts and those of others deciding what was at stake and judging whether it was a good gift a bad gift or even a gift at all Sometimes gifts brought peace and amity sometimes they led to bitter quarrels and accusations of corruption The Reformation and its liturgy were in part a quarrel between Protestants and Catholics about whether humans can give gifts to God and what gifts we owe each other Natalie Zemon Davis here deploys her own gift for the retelling of sometimes poignant personal stories to offer both telling cultural detail and a true historical perspective on the turbulent era of the Renaissance and Reformation The Gift Economy David Cheal, 2015-07-03 Until recently we have known more about gift giving practices in pre industrial societies than about those of industrial western society In this book first published in 1988 David Cheal shows that the process of present giving and receiving is a vital element in contemporary social life relevant to some of the most important theoretical traditions in sociology particularly those of Durkheim and Weber and to the social constructionism of Peter Berger and Thomas Luckmann This volume is the result of a major study of gift rituals carried out by David Cheal and his associates in which general themes are richly illustrated with details from individual case histories gathered during the research It is highly significant that in western society women are more active gift givers than men and while their voices explain how emotions and interests are interrelated within the gift economy the author shows how that in turn is related to current theories about family gender and religion
