Mobilizing Hospitality Sarah Gibson, 2016-04-15 The concept of mobility has sparked lively academic debate in recent years Drawing on research from the fields of anthropology geography sociology and tourism studies this volume examines the intersection between mobility and hospitality highlighting the issues that emerge as we encounter strangers in a mobile world Through a series of diverse empirical accounts it focuses on the transnational movement of people in the contexts of migration and tourism and examines how hospitality serves as a way of promoting and policing encounters questioning how these relations are marked by exclusion as well as inclusion and by violence as well as by kindness In addition to exploring the power relations between mobile populations hosts and guests and attitudes hospitality and hostility the book also examines spaces of hospitality and mobility such as cities hotels clubs cafes spas asylums restaurants homes and homepages In doing so it makes a significant contribution to the political and ethical dimensions of mobile social relations

Biblical, Traditional, and Theological Framework for Understanding Christian Prophetism in Ghana Today Daniel Nii Aboagye

Aryeh, 2019-01-03 The basis for this project is to verify and determine the extent to which contemporary prophetic ministry in Ghana appropriates prophetism in the early church Corpus Paulinum and traditional prophetism in Ghana The spirit of prophecy which was believed to have ceased in Judaism and during the intertestamental period has now been restored at the inauguration of Christianity Notwithstanding Paul gave stipulations for prophets and prophecy in the church in 1 Corinthians 14 This confirms that prophecy was a common phenomenon in the early church and Pauline communities Contemporary prophetic ministry in Ghana claimed to have conformed to Pauline stipulations concerning prophets and prophecy in the church but what is their level of conformity Contemporary prophetic ministry is becoming popular due to its appeal and compatibility with religious worldviews and its pragmatic outlook that resonates with the Ghanaian phenomenon of religion. As an adherent of the Akan traditional religion would go to a religious intermediary for ebisa literally to inquire or ask into present or future happenings contemporary prophets have positioned themselves to be agents of ebisa in Ghanaian Christianity. This book explores biblical and traditional understandings of prophetism that have influenced contemporary Christian understanding of prophets and prophecy in the church. Calendar of the Manuscripts of the Most Hon. the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., &c. &c. &c., Preserved at Hatfield House, Hertfordshire Great Britain. This Catechism is divided into three parts. The first part treats of faith, the second of morals, the third of the means of grace. In the first part Our Lord appears in His character of Teacher; in the second in His character of King; and in the third in His character of High Priest. And since this Catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth, thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny, it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests, self-indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many. This Catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of Our Lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the Christian on the road to heaven.
