Sociological Analysis Of Integration Of Non Citizens In Latvia:

Sociological Analysis of Integration of Non-Citizens in Latvia Inese Šūpule, Bebri a Iveta, Evija Klave, 2014-11-12 On 1st January 2014 13% or 282 876 people out of all Latvian population were former U S S R citizens who do not have the citizenship of the Republic of Latvia or that of any other country Most often this group has been denominated as Latvian non citizens The study gives an in depth understanding of the barriers and motivation of Latvian non citizens to naturalize or not and attitudes of non citizens towards living and integrating in Latvian society The following dimensions of citizenship has been analysed status of citizenship citizenship as sense of belonging and practice of citizenship The study involved the principles of participatory research approach One of the main findings was on importance and positive feedback of discussions and dialogue among ethnic Latvians Russians citizens and non citizens in Latvia Human Development Report 1999 United Nations Development Programme, United Nations Publications, 1999 Documents, Working Papers - Council of Europe, Parliamentary Assembly Council of Europe. Parliamentary Assembly, 2001 Nation Building And Ethnic Integration In Post-soviet Societies Pal Kolsto, 1999-08-12 Of all the states of the former Soviet Union it is in Latvia and in Kazakstan that the titular nation represents the lowest share of the total population as of 1997 approximately 57% in Latvia and 50% in Kazakstan In such a situation it is difficult to see how the titular Latvian Kazak culture can serve as a consolidating element in the nation building project And yet in both of these states nation building seem to follow the same general post Soviet pattern the traditions and symbols of the titular nations form the basis while the remainder of the population gets treated as ethnic minorities But is this at all possible Is half of the population supposed to be integrated into the other half and if so what will be the result It is a remarkable fact that faced with these formidable challenges Latvia and Kazakstan have so far been basically spared the kind of communal violence which has erupted in many other Soviet successor states This book gives an in depth analysis of ethnopolitics in Latvia and Kazakhstan and explores the reasons for this tranquil outcome Baltic States Christian Giordano, A. Jubulis,2001-05-09 Nationalism and Democratic Transition explores the impact of nationalism during Latvia s transition from communist rule 1988 1991 and examines the post Soviet efforts of Latvia to construct a democratic nation state in a multi ethnic context While most observers have labeled Latvia as a typical example of a state promoting an exclusive form of ethnic nationalism the author argues that Latvia s path to independence was characterized by a moderate non violent form of nationalism which sought to include non Latvian groups in the struggle against Soviet rule
