The Laurel Hardy Theory Of Consciousness:

The Laurel & Hardy Theory of Consciousness Colin Wilson, 1986 Despite research on the brain the mystery of the mind remains since modern science refuses to formally address the problem of consciousness The human brain has two halves that are almost identical and the question of why this should be remains unsolved Colin Wilson likens these halves left and right hemispheres to a Laurel then it seems as if the brain contains separate selves What is important is not dominance or a comic assertion for independence but a new understanding of individual function how conscious effort of control or cooperation based upon a change of attitude can bring about immediate changes in the quality of human consciousness Page 4 of cover
