The Leopard:

Wives of the Leopard Edna G. Bay, 2012-06-29 Wives of the Leopard explores power and culture in a pre colonial West African state whose army of women and practice of human sacrifice earned it notoriety in the racist imagination of late nineteenth century Europe and America Tracing two hundred years of the history of Dahomey up to the French colonial conquest in 1894 the book follows change in two central institutions One was the monarchy the coalitions of men and women who seized and wielded power in the name of the king The second was the palace a household of several thousand wives of the king who supported and managed state functions Looking at Dahomey against the backdrop of the Atlantic slave trade and the growth of European imperialism Edna G Bay reaches for a distinctly Dahomean perspective as she weaves together evidence drawn from travelers memoirs and local oral accounts from the religious practices of vodun and from ethnographic studies of the twentieth century Wives of the Leopard thoroughly integrates gender into the political analysis of state systems effectively creating a social history of power More broadly it argues that women as a whole and men of the lower classes were gradually squeezed out of access to power as economic resources contracted with the decline of the slave trade in the nineteenth century In these and other ways the book provides an accessible portrait of Dahomey's complex and fascinating culture without exoticizing it

Voice of the Leopard Ivor Miller, 2009 How African secret societies changed the music art and history of Cuba

How the Leopard Changed Its Spots Brian Goodwin, 2001-02-18 Do genes explain life Can advances in evolutionary and molecular biology account for what we look like how we behave and why we die This intervention into biological thinking argues that such genetic reductionism has limits It shows how an understanding of the self organizing patterns of networks is necessary for making sense of nature

The Way of the Leopard Gillian Van Houten, 2003 Encapsulates the intensely intimate relationship that the author shared with leopard cubs Little Boy and Little Girl during the year she spent filming them and researching their behavior
