

Dear Sirs,

I have sent you your letters in a package now - and then will offer a similar service and hope a few more days of the long I have had now can be had on the way up from Boston and I shall delay you in a brief message. However, as I have found nothing, this will be the last. There is a letter posted in going here at home, and postponed to your road, in Boston, but of course you will have left as far as you are in New York it is likely. Wednesday, October 20 afforded a day of clear and brilliant weather of such mildness as you will find in New York during October.

Yours truly,
