The Letters Of The First Viscount Hardinge Of Lahore 1844 1847 Camden Fourth Ser No 3:

The Chartist General Edward Beasley,2016-11-03 General Charles James Napier was sent to confront the tens of thousands of Chartist protestors marching through the cities of the North of England in the late 1830s A well known leftist who agreed with the Chartist demands for democracy Napier managed to keep the peace In South Asia the same man would later provoke a war and conquer Sind In this first ever scholarly biography of Napier Edward Beasley asks how the conventional depictions of the man as a peacemaker in England and a warmonger in Asia can be reconciled Employing deep archival research and close readings of Napier s published books ignored by prior scholars this well written volume demonstrates that Napier was a liberal imperialist who believed that if freedom was right for the people of England it was right for the people of Sind even if freedom had to be imposed by military force Napier also confronted the messy aftermath of Western conquest carrying out nation building with mixed success trying to end the honour killing of women and eventually discovering the limits of imperial interference

Empress Miles Taylor,2018-10-02 An entirely original account of Victoria s relationship with the Raj which shows how India was central to the Victorian monarchy from as early as 1837 In this engaging and controversial book Miles Taylor shows how both Victoria and Albert were spellbound by India and argues that the Queen was humanely intelligently and passionately involved with the country throughout her reign and not just in the last decades Taylor also reveals the way in which Victoria s influence as empress contributed significantly to India s modernization both political and economic This is in a number of respects a fresh account of imperial rule in India suggesting that it was one of Victoria s successes
