The Life And Times Of Menelik II Ethiopia 1844 1913 Oxford Studies In African:

The Life and Times of Menelik II Harold G. Marcus, 1995 Dictionary of African Historical Biography Mark R. Lipschutz, R. Kent Rasmussen, 1986 The acclaimed Dictionary of African Historical Biography the only single volume biographical work on Sub Saharan African history has been expanded and updated to include entries on over eight hundred people important in Sub Saharan African history up to 1980 Ethiopian Warriorhood Tsehai Berhane-Selassie, 2018 The history of the often overlooked chewa Ethiopian warriors and their crucial role in defending their homeland against invasion as well as their strong influence on political identity and the social infrastructure Autonomy and Ethnicity Yash P. Ghai, 2000-10-12 This book first published in 2000 deals with one of the most urgent problems of contemporary times the political organisation of multi ethnic states Most major conflicts of our time are internal to the state and revolve around the claims of access to or the redesign of the state Responses to ethnic conflicts have ranged from oppression and ethnic cleansing to accommodations of ethnic claims through affirmative policies special forms of representation power sharing and the integration of minorities One of the most sought after and resisted devices for conflict management is autonomy Within an overarching framework that examines different understandings of ethnic consciousness and the variety of territorial autonomies the authors examine the experiences of spatial distribution of power in Canada India China South Africa Ethiopia PNG Spain the former Yugoslavia Cyprus Sri Lanka and Australia Memory Politics and Building Multinational States in Africa Ashagrie G. Abdi, 2025-12-31 This book tackles the fundamental question of how a society with competing collective memories and visions can build a common nation while trying to reconcile the past and forge a common future Delving into the complex interplay between collective memory identity nation building and constitution making within the Ethiopian context it offers a detailed case of how law memory and power interact in post conflict multi ethnic societies Using the 1995 Ethiopian Constitution as a case study the book investigates how competing collective memories and identity conflicts have shaped Ethiopia's national identity governance and broader efforts toward nation building in a multinational state Drawing on in depth interviews document analysis and theoretical insights it explores how historical grievances identity politics and contested memories were embedded in constitutional debates over federalism language the flag and the right to self determination The analysis highlights the ways in which these collective memories influence political dynamics contribute to ongoing internal conflicts and shape national narratives Offering a deeper understanding of how memory politics affects governance and stability this work addresses the broader implications for scholars and policymakers interested in the intersections of memory identity and constitutional processes in diverse societies By centering Ethiopia and through a synthesis of theoretical frameworks and empirical research this book provides crucial insights into the challenges and possibilities of nation building across the Global South making it essential reading for researchers and advanced students interested in the complexities of governing multinational states African politics and law and those with interests in memory
