Dana (Classic Reprint) James Harrison Wilson, 2018-01-05 Excerpt from The Life of Charles A Dana Having met Charles A Dana first in the spring of 1863 during the Vicksburg campaign it was my good fortune to serve with him in the field during three of the most memorable campaigns of the Civil War and for a short period under him as a bureau officer of the War Department Our duties threw us much together and of all the men I ever met he was the most delightful companion Overflowing with the knowledge of art science and literature and widely acquainted as he was with the leading men and movements of the times his conversation was a constant delight and a constant instruction Blessed with a vigorous constitution and an insatiable desire for information he never once by day or night or in the presence of danger however great declined to accompany me on an expedition or an adventure Naturally this companionship begot both a confidence and an intimacy that I am glad to say lasted to the end of his career and are my warrant for becoming his biographer About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Dictionary of Early American Philosophers John R. philosophical questions involved in such fields as pedagogy rhetoric the arts history politics economics sociology psychology medicine anthropology religion metaphysics and the natural sciences Each entry begins with biographical and career information and continues with a discussion of the subject's writings teaching and thought A cross referencing system refers the reader to other entries The concluding bibliography lists significant publications by the subject posthumous editions and collected works and further reading about the subject

The Sun Shines for All Janet E. Steele, 1993-09-01 Through a blend of social and media history the author explores America's transition from a production oriented society to a culture of consumption Because of Dana's strong aversion to the consumerism that accompanied industrial capitalism the Sun became both the conscience and the advocate for New York's working class In the words of Joseph Pulitzer Dana transformed the Sun into the most piquant entertaining and without exception the best newspaper in the world

Barbaric Intercourse Martha Banta, 2003-01-15 Barbaric Intercourse tells the story of a century of social upheaval and the satiric attacks it inspired in leading periodicals in both England and America Martha Banta explores the politics of caricature and cartoon from 1841 to 1936 devoting special attention to the original Life magazine For Banta Life embodied all the strengths and weaknesses of the Progressive Era whose policies of reform sought to cope with the frenetic urbanization of New York the racist laws of the Jim Crow South and the rise of jingoism in the United States Barbaric Intercourse shows how Life's take on these trends and events resulted in satires both cruel and enlightened Banta also deals extensively with London's Punch a sharp critic of American nationalism and draws from images and writings in magazines as diverse as Puck The Crisis Harper's Weekly and The International Socialist Review Orchestrating a wealth of material including reproductions of rarely seen political cartoons she offers a richly layered account of the cultural struggles of the age from contests over immigration and the role of the New Negro in American society to debates over Wall Street greed women's suffrage and the moral consequences of Western expansionism
