The Latin American Subaltern Studies Reader Iliana Yamileth Rodriguez, María Milagros López, 2001-09-24 Sharing a postrevolutionary sympathy with the struggles of the poor the contributors to this first comprehensive collection of writing on subalternity in Latin America work to actively link politics culture and literature Emerging from a decade of work and debates generated by a collective known as the Latin American Studies Group the volume privileges the category of the subaltern over that of class as contributors focus on the possibilities of investigating history from below In addition to an overview by Ranajit Guha essay topics include nineteenth century hygiene in Latin American countries Rigoberta Mench after the Nobel commentaries on Haitian and Argentinian issues the relationship between gender and race in Bolivia and ungovernability and tragedy in Peru Providing a radical critique of elite culture and of liberal bourgeois and modern epistemologies and projects the essays included here prove that Latin American Subaltern Studies is much more than the mere translation of subaltern studies from South Asia to Latin America Contributors Marcelo Bergman John Beverley Robert Carr Sara Castro Klar n Michael Clark Beatriz Gonz lez Stephan Ranajit Guha Mar a Milagros L pez Walter Mignolo Alberto Moreiras Abdul Karim Mustapha Jos Rabasa Ileana Rodr guez Josefina Salda a Portillo Javier Sanjin s C Patricia Seed Doris Sommer Marcia Stephenson M nica Szurmuk Gareth Williams Marc Zimmerman

Southern Postcolonialisms Sumanyu Satpathy, 2020-11-29

Southern Postcolonialisms is an anthology of critical essays on new literary representations from the Global South that seeks to re invent reorient the ideological disciplinary aesthetic and pedagogical thrust of Postcolonial Studies in accordance with the new and shifting politico economic realities transactions between the North and the South as well as within the Global South in an era of globalization Since the emergence of Postcolonial Theory in the 1980s the shape of the world has changed dramatically Old Cold War boundaries have shifted in the wake of the collapse of communism Globalization on an unprecedented scale has dramatically changed the meaning of time and space The rise of the US as a new imperial power has profound implications for the world order In the South new emerging markets have challenged the older division of industrial first world and non industrial third world In most parts of the world the academy is struggling to keep up with these developments One result has been a major transnational turn in the humanities and social sciences Terms like world history globalization glocalization and transnationalism now dominate academic agendas worldwide These changing circumstances raise far reaching questions What does the new emerging world order mean for established models of postcolonial theory Is postcolonialism as a field of study being overtaken by models of globalization and transnationalism What implications do the new configurations in the South have for postcolonial theory This volume drawn from a major literary conference at Delhi University provides a set of perspectives on these questions With a majority of contributions by scholars from the South these research articles have a dual focus they revisit older debates on postcolonial theory while suggesting new perspectives and directions

The Revolution from Within Michael J. Bustamante, Jennifer L.

Lambe,2019-02-14 What does the Cuban Revolution look like from within This volume proposes that scholars and observers of Cuba have too long looked elsewhere from the United States to the Soviet Union to write the island's post 1959 history Drawing on previously unexamined archives the contributors explore the dynamics of sociopolitical inclusion and exclusion during the Revolution's first two decades They foreground the experiences of Cubans of all walks of life from ordinary citizens and bureaucrats to artists and political leaders in their interactions with and contributions to the emerging revolutionary state In essays on agrarian reform the environment dance fashion and more contributors enrich our understanding of the period beginning with the utopic mobilizations of the early 1960s and ending with the 1980 Mariel boatlift In so doing they offer new perspectives on the Revolution that are fundamentally driven by developments on the island Bringing together new historical research with comparative and methodological reflections on the challenges of writing about the Revolution The Revolution from Within highlights the political stakes attached to Cuban history after 1959 Contributors Michael J Bustamante Mar a A Cabrera Ar s Mar a del Pilar D az Casta n Ada Ferrer Alejandro de la Fuente Reinaldo Funes Monzote Lillian Guerra Jennifer L Lambe Jorge Macle Cruz Christabelle Peters Rafael Rojas Elizabeth Schwall Abel Sierra Madero

Feminist Visions and Queer Futures in Postcolonial Drama

Kanika Batra,2011-04-13 In this timely study Batra examines contemporary drama from India Jamaica and Nigeria in conjunction with feminist and incipient queer movements in these countries Postcolonial drama Batra contends furthers the struggle for gender justice in both these movements by contesting the idea of the heterosexual middle class wage earning male as the model citizen and by suggesting alternative conceptions of citizenship premised on working class sexual identities Further Batra considers the possibility of Indian Jamaican and Nigerian drama generating a discourse on a rights bearing conception of citizenship that derives from representations of non biological non generational forms of kinship Her study is one of the first to examine the ways in which postcolonial dramatists are creating the possibility of a dialogue between cultural activism women's movements and an emerging discourse on queer sexualities

Indigenous Cosmolectics

Gloria Elizabeth Chacón,2018-09-28 Latin America's Indigenous writers have long labored under the limits of colonialism but in the late twentieth and twenty first centuries they have constructed a literary corpus that moves them beyond those parameters Gloria E Chac n considers the growing number of contemporary Indigenous writers who turn to Maya and Zapotec languages alongside Spanish translations of their work to challenge the tyranny of monolingualism and cultural homogeneity Chac n argues that these Maya and Zapotec authors reconstruct an Indigenous literary tradition rooted in an Indigenous cosmolectics a philosophy originally grounded in pre Columbian sacred conceptions of the cosmos time and place and now expressed in creative writings More specifically she attends to Maya and Zapotec literary and cultural forms by theorizing kab awil as an Indigenous philosophy Tackling the political and literary implications of this work Chac n argues that Indigenous writers use of familiar genres alongside Indigenous language use of oral traditions and new representations of selfhood and nation all create space for expressions of cultural and political autonomy Chac n recognizes that Indigenous writers draw from universal literary strategies but nevertheless argues that this literature is a vital center for reflecting on Indigenous ways of knowing and is a key artistic expression of decolonization The Hispanic American Historical Review James Alexander Robertson,2002 Includes Bibliographical section

Doom Patterns Maia Gil'Adí,2024-11-01 In Doom Patterns Maia Gil Ad takes up speculative fiction as a site for theorizing Latinx identity across national and ethnic borders and shows the vital role of historical trauma in its formation Her analysis moves beyond reparative modes of reading to consider how literary representations of violence destruction and pain also elicit pleasurable affective and aesthetic experiences Gil Ad theorizes the paradox of pleasurable violence through the notion of doom patterns narrative devices that include thematic repetition nonlinear narration character fragmentation and unresolved plots Doom patterns return the reader to instances of historical violence and destruction revealing them as excessive and otherworldly processes that require the tropes of speculative fiction Examining novels by established Latinx authors such as Junot D az and Cristina Garc a as well as multiethnic writers such as Colson Whitehead and Sesshu Foster Gil Ad challenges definitions of what constitutes Latinx literature and notions of the speculative by dismantling generic boundaries and entrenched definitions of race ethnicity and nationhood In so doing she allows for a more capacious consideration of the speculative realism history and the role of violence in literature

Contemporary Maya Writers Gloria E. Chacón,2006 The Ethics of Latin American Literary Criticism Erin Graff Zivin,2007-07-15 The last several decades have witnessed a reorientation of the political and a globalization of the cultural in Latin America shifting literature s function as a homogenizing citizen forming institution to a more dispersed fragmented and potentially democratic and liberating practice At the same time and perhaps in response to this cultural shift the field of Latin American literary studies has expanded to include cultural studies postcolonial theory performance studies gender studies Africana studies and subaltern studies at once expanding and disrupting the boundaries of literature criticism and of Latin America itself In light of these dramatic transformations within a globalized Latin American culture as well as within the field of Latin American literary studies itself what value can we attribute to aesthetics today Is a reconsideration of artistic creation a mere return to the hegemonic lettered city described by Angel Rama Or can we begin to think about an ethical potential inscribed within the act of reading that is an encounter with otherness that irreversibly alters the reading subject
