The Legality Of Love:

Life and Death, the Sanctions of the Law of Love. A Discourse, Delivered in the Eastbrook Chapel, Bradford, on July 22nd, 1878 ... George William Olver, 1878 A Biblicist View of Law and Gospel Lester L. Stephenson, 2017-06-09

Paul told the Romans the Law is holy and the commandment is holy and righteous and good Yet four times in three epistles he wrote We are not under law but under grace Christians read these seemingly conflicting statements and are easily confused They wonder if anyone can understand how the law and the Old Testament relates to their faith Some take the easy way out and all but ignore the Old Testament calling it legalism They prefer to concentrate on and enjoy the magnificent grace of God that comes with salvation This limits their understanding of the Scriptures and indeed restricts spiritual growth Confusion further abounds because just about every denomination has a different interpretation of the law and the relationship between the testaments Lester Stephenson proposes a different approach rooted in Jesus words in Matthew 5 17 18 Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets I did not come to abolish but to fulfill For truly I say to you until heaven and earth pass away not the smallest letter or stroke shall pass from the Law until all is accomplished Those two verses call for Christians to look anew at the law and the rest of the Old Testament Not one part of the law or what the prophets wrote will pass away until Jesus has completely fulfilled it Stephenson stresses that Christians must recognize the importance of the Bible that Jesus and the apostles used Each time Jesus and the apostles used the phrase it is written they were using an Old Testament passage to illustrate a New Testament principle In A Biblicist View of Law and Gospel Stephenson advocates a biblicist view based on careful Bible study to explain how Christians are to view the law and the way the testaments fit together as an inspired whole Christianity, Ethics and the Law Zachary R. Calo, Joshua Neoh, A. Keith Thompson, 2022-12-30 This book examines how Christian love can inform legal thought The work introduces love as a way to advance the emergent conversation between constructive theology and jurisprudence that will also inform conversations in philosophy and political theory Love is the central category for Christian ethical understanding Yet the growing field of law and religion and relatedly law and theology rarely addresses how love can shape our understanding of law This reflects in part a common assumption that law and love stand in necessary tension Love applies to the private and the personal Law by contrast applies to the public and the political realms governed by power It is thus a mistake to envisage love as having anything but a negative relationship to law This conclusion continues to govern Christian understandings of the meaning and vocation of law The animating idea of this volume is that the concept of love can and should inform Christian legal thought The project approaches this task from the perspective of both historical and constructive theology Various contributions examine how such thinkers as Augustine Aquinas and Calvin utilised love in their legal thought These essays highlight often neglected aspects of the Christian tradition Other contributions examine Christian love in light of contemporary legal topics including civility forgiveness and secularism Love the book proposes not only matters for law but can transform the terms on which Christians understand and engage it The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of legal theory law and religion law and philosophy legal history theology and religious studies and political theory Our Paper ,1895 The Law of Love Vicent Guillem,2015-06-24 The content of this book is a message of love for you My wish is that it serves you to know better your feelings allowing you to distinguish the feelings of true love from those forms of selfishness which imitate love but are not really So seek to feed the first ones and remove the second ones because this is the only way to become happy I hope that after reading this book it is clear to you that you have a fundamental right that you must not let anyone violate and this is the right to the freedom of feeling With all my love for you Official web page http thespiritualawslaws.blogspot.com es The Theosophic Messenger ,1912 A Commentary, Critical and Explanatory, on the Old and New testaments REV.
