The Letter Writer Pauls Background And Torah Perspective:

The Letter Writer Tim Hegg,2002-01-01 Paul's Letters and Contemporary Greco-Roman Literature Paul Robertson,2016-05-23 In this volume Paul Robertson re describes the form of the apostle Paul s letters in a manner that facilitates transparent empirical comparison with texts not typically treated by biblical scholars Paul s letters are best described by a set of literary characteristics shared by certain Greco Roman texts particularly those of Epictetus and Philodemus Paul Robertson theorizes a new taxonomy of Greco Roman literature that groups Paul s letters together with certain Greco Roman ethical philosophical texts written at a roughly contemporary time in the ancient Mediterranean This particular grouping termed a socio literary sphere is defined by the shared form content and social purpose of its constituent texts as well as certain general similarities between their texts authors GALATIANS: A verse-by-verse outline and commentary of Paul's Letter to the Galatians Christy Anderson,2012-03-15 This book is Volume I of a two volume set Volume I is an analytical examination of Paul s letter to the Galatians It contains both an amplified version of the text with detailed footnotes as well as a commentary section It is intended to be used in conjunction with Volume II that contains a Sermon Series through Galatians with thought provoking discussion questions designed for individual or small group study Together both books allow the reader to make a complete interpretive journey by first discovering the original meaning of the text Volume I and then crossing the interpretive bridge to make personal application of the text Volume II A Jew to the Jews David J. Rudolph,2011 David Rudolph s primary aim is to demonstrate that scholars overstate their case when they maintain that 1 Cor 9 19 23 is incompatible with a Torah observant Paul A secondary aim is to show how one might understand 1 Cor 9 19 23 as the discourse of a Jew who remained within the bounds of pluriform Second Temple Judaism Part I addresses the intertextual contextual and textual case for the traditional reading of 1 Cor 9 19 23 Weaknesses are pointed out and alternative approaches are considered The exegetical case in Part II centres on interpreting 1 Cor 9 19 23 in light of Paul s recapitulation in 1 Cor 10 32 11 1 which concludes with the statement Be imitators of me as I am of Christ Given the food related and hospitality context of 1 Cor 8 10 and Paul s reference to dominical sayings that point back to Jesus example and rule of adaptation it is argued that 1 Cor 9 19 23 reflects Paul s imitation of Jesus accommodation oriented table fellowship with all As Jesus became all things to all people through eating with ordinary Jews Pharisees and sinners Paul became all things to all people through eating with ordinary Jews strict Jews those under the law and Gentile sinners This Cambridge University dissertation won the 2007 Franz Delitzsch Prize from the Freie Theologische Akademie A Family Guide to the Biblical Holidays Robin Sampson,Linda Pierce,2001 This giant resource gives an an extensive look at the nine annual holidays Passover Unleavened Bread Firstfruits Pentecost Trumpets Day of Atonement Tabernacles Hanukkah Purim and the Sabbath A Jew to the Jews David Rudolph,2016-10-21 David J Rudolph raises new questions about Paul s view of the Torah and Jewish identity in this post supersessionist interpretation of 1 Corinthians 9 19 23 Paul s principle of accommodation is considered in light of the diversity of Second Temple Judaism and Jesus example and rule of accommodation

Hugh Schonfield Owen Power, 2013-03-13 With this book Owen Power offers the first full length intellectual history of the thinker Hugh Schonfield 1901 1988 Power contextualises Schonfield and his work in the spheres of Jewish ideology and Messianic Jewish politics as a means to explain the complicated nature of Messianic Jewish identity There are many problems in making sense of the varied claims made about the Jewishness of Jewish Believers in Jesus as there is a striking lack of agreement as to their Jewish status among halakhic authorities and there is no real consensus among Messianic Jews themselves in answering the question Who is a Messianic Jew On the other hand the attitude of many Jewish commentators regarding Messianic Jews is that they are traitors and apostates pretending to be Jews Christian missionaries hell bent on enticing Jews from their communities to the welcoming embrace of the Church Normative Jewish opinion tends to treat Jewish Believers in Jesus as a monolithic group and thus fails to recognise the wide range of groups and individuals who claim to be Messianic Jews even if there is among them little consensus as to what such a label means Schonfield s case both reinforces such convictions and problematizes them

Paul's Language of Grace in Its Graeco-Roman Context James R. Harrison, 2003 James R Harrison argues that the Graeco Roman benefaction context of favour is the backdrop of Paul s understanding of divine and humane grace By the first century AD was the leitmotiv of the Hellenistic reciprocity system It shaped the conventions of giving and receiving throughout the eastern Mediterranean basin Before Paul s converts were exposed to the gospel they would have held various beliefs regarding divine beneficence The apostle needed to tailor his language of grace as much to the theological concerns of Graeco Roman culture as to first century Judaism In making benefaction terminology the touchstone of his theology of grace Paul chose to articulate his understanding of over and against the theological and social beliefs of the Mediterranean city states and the imperial rulers While Paul endorses the reciprocity system he redefines its rationale in the light of the gospel of grace and transforms its social expression in his house churches

The Shining Garment of the Text Alison E. Jasper, 1998 Taking the prologue of John s Gospel as a case study in feminist biblical criticism the author engages with a persistent view that the biblical text is seriously compromised by its association with patriarchal values Close analysis of five interpretations by Augustine Hildegard von Bingen Martin Luther Adrienne von Speyr and Rudolf Bultmann shows how unavoidably interpretation clothes the biblical text with the varied and dazzling patterns of the patriarchal reading context But in a second turn drawing on the techniques of both structuralist criticism and deconstruction and offering three further inventive readings of this powerful passage Jasper reflects woman and the feminine in the shining garment of her own contextualized reading

Neotestamentica ,2002 Vols for 1967 1968 1971 1983 constitute Proceedings of the meeting of Die Nuwe Testamentiese Werkgemeenskap van Suid Afrika Divine and Human Agency in Paul and His Cultural Environment John M.G. Barclay,Simon J. Gathercole,2008-05-27 The aim of this volume is to re examine Paul within contemporary Jewish debate on the topic of divine grace and its relation to human agency

The Epistle of James and Eschatology Todd C. Penner,1996 The aim of this book is to challenge the common view that the epistle of James is a late Hellenistic Wisdom document that has little importance for our understanding of earliest Christianity The author undertakes two main projects first an examination of the various assumptions about date setting and content that have influenced how the letter of James has been interpreted and second a re reading of the letter that seeks to uncover the special character of the epistle by stressing the fusion of its eschatological framework with its ethical instruction The literary cultural and social contextualization of James that emerges sheds new light on this often neglected text and its place in early Christianity
