twenty first century autobiographical writing The Fiction of Autobiography examines key aspects of autobiography from the interrelated perspectives of author reader critic and scholar to reconsider how we view this form of writing and its relationship to the way we understand and construct identity Maftai considers recent cases and texts such as Didion s The Year of Magical Thinking and Frey s A Million Little Pieces alongside older texts such as Proust s In Search of Lost Time Nabokov s Speak Memory and Stein s The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas In part this is to emphasise that key issues reappear and arise over decades and centuries and that texts distanced by time can speak to each other thoughtfully and poignantly

Sinners Welcome Mary Karr,2009-10-13 Mary Karr describes herself as a black belt sinner and this her fourth collection of poems traces her improbable journey from the inferno of a tormented childhood into a resolutely irreverent Catholicism Not since Saint Augustine wrote Give me chastity Lord but not yet has anyone brought such smart assed hilarity to a conversion story Karr s battle is grounded in common loss a bitter romance friends deaths a teenage son s leaving home as well as in elegies for a complicated mother The poems disarm with the arresting humor familiar to readers of her memoirs The Liars Club and Cherry An illuminating cycle of spiritual poems have roots in Karr's eight month tutelage in Jesuit prayer practice and as an afterword her celebrated essay on faith weaves the tale of how the language of poetry which relieved her suffering so young eventually became the language of prayer Those of us who fret that poetry denies consolation will find clear eyed joy in this collection The Art of Time in Memoir Sven Birkerts, 2008 In The Art of Time in Memoir critic editor and memoirist Sven Birkerts examines the human impulse to write about the self Memoir is for better and often for worse the genre of our times Birkerts writes But what makes one memoir memorable and another self serving What determines the difference between graceful disclosure and sensational self exposure Birkerts argues that the memoirist's strategies for presenting the subjective experience of time reveal the power and resonance of the writer's life By examining memoirs such as Vladimir Nabokov's Invitation of a Memory Virginia Woolf's unfinished A Sketch of the Past and Mary Karr's The Liars Club Birkerts describes the memoirist's essential art of assembling patterns of meaning how the work stirs to life our own sense of past and present
