The Light Still Shines:

Where the Light Still Shines Christopher Williams, 2025-11-20 Where the Light Still Shines is an inspirational Christian novel about a guilt haunted son and a flood torn town who discover that grace writes the final word Five years after the accident that took his mother's life and shattered his relationship with his father Daniel Pierce is drawn into Willow Bay's recovery when catastrophic flooding strikes Amid volunteer efforts led by new pastor Jacob Reeves and a resilient community a life or death rescue ignites a chain of choices sacrifice for a friend a courageous return to music and a halting reconnection with his father As neighbors rebuild homes and hearts Daniel learns that forgiveness is not a verdict he earns but a gift he can receive and give For readers of Karen Kingsbury and Charles Martin this small town story blends emotional depth quiet romance and the transforming power of worship It's a tender reminder that the light that finds us in our darkest hours is the same light we are called to carry to others The Methodist visitor, 1877 "The Light Still Shines" James R.
