A Critical and Exegetical Commentary on the Book of Psalms,1875    Conflict, Bargaining, and Kinship Networks in Medieval Eastern Europe Christian Raffensperger,2018-04-26 Conflict Bargaining and Kinship Networks in Medieval Eastern Europe takes the familiar view of Eastern Europe families and conflicts and stands it on its head Instead of a world rife with civil war and killing this book presents a relatively structured environment where conflict is engaged in for the purposes of advancing one's position and where death among the royal families is relatively rare At the heart of this analysis is the use of situational kinship networks relationships created by elites for the purposes of engaging in conflict with their own kin but only for the duration of a particular conflict A new image of medieval Eastern Europe less consumed by civil war and mass death will change the perception of medieval Eastern Europe in the minds of readers This new perception is essential to not only present the past more accurately but also to allow for medieval Eastern Europe's integration into the larger medieval world as something other than an aberrant other
