Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review ,1951 The Short Stories of Damon Runyon - Volume II - The Lemon Drop Kid Damon Runyon,2018-10-10 Damon Runyon was born Alfred Damon Runyan on October 4th 1880 in Manhattan Kansas When Runyon was two his father was forced to sell his newspaper and the family moved further west eventually settling in Pueblo Colorado in 1887 where Runyon spent the rest of his youth By most accounts he attended school only through the fourth grade and then seeking a career moved into the newspaper trade working for his father In 1898 still a teenager Runyon sought to broaden his horizons and enlisted in the U S Army to fight in the Spanish American War After his service he returned to Colorado and worked for several local newspapers Runyon's expertise was covering the semi professional teams in Colorado for a man who would become indelibly linked to sports he endured a notable failure in an attempt to organize a Colorado minor baseball league It lasted less than a week In 1910 Runyon moved to New York City to work for the William Randolph Hearst newspaper chain writing a daily column in The New York American Here in his first New York byline his name was changed once more The editor decided to drop the Alfred and run with the soon to be famous moniker Damon Runyon Promoted to be the Hearst newspapers baseball columnist he developed his trademark knack of spotting the eccentric and the unusual on the field or in the stands and Runyon generally re wrote and revolutionized the way baseball was covered in newspapers and shared this style with its adoring millions of fans But Runyon was more than a great sports writer His plays and essays became legendary ways of looking that bit differently at America of soaking up the atmosphere of a glamorous and rip roaring age and distilling it into black and white type Of course the clich about newspapermen and writers is that they are heavy drinkers chain smokers gamblers and obsessively chase women with a sideline in gathering info and actually getting something written just before the deadline hits And that pretty much was Runyon's life In 1938 Runyon developed throat cancer which eventually would leave him unable to speak but not unable to work which he continued to do so at a ferocious pace From 1939 to 1943 Runyon pursued a Hollywood career as a writer and producer at MGM Universal and RKO studios The work continued to follow from Runyon's pen Not only some fabulous short stories in his famous Runyonesque filled with characters as funny and gritty as anything that could be written but classic books that would endure long after he was gone Guys a book a film a musical Alfred Damon Runyon died in New York City on December 10th 1946 from throat cancer at age 66 Trek ,1951 The Road to Comedy Donald McCaffrey,2005 Although Bob Hope has been the subject of many biographies no book yet has fully explored the comic persona he created in vaudeville and radio brought to fruition in dozens of films from the 1930s through the 1960s and made a lasting influence on comedians from Woody Allen to Conan O'Brien Now in The Road to Comedy The Films of Bob Hope noted film comedy authority Donald W McCaffrey finally places Hope in his well deserved position among the highest rank of film comedians of his era Drawing on archival materials and interviews with collaborators McCaffrey analyzes each major film in depth with due attention to particular sequences that reveal how Hope created a unique comic personality that lasted over dozens of very popular films from The Road movies with Bing Crosby through such underrated classics as Son of Paleface Monsieur Beaucaire and Casanova's Big Night In so doing McCaffrey introduces readers to a Bob Hope now overshadowed by his own reputation We see here that Hope's significance has been greater than any USO appearance or television special might suggest. Because many of these movies have recently been made available on DVD for the first time in decades, they've been easily available to the general public. The volume will also serve as an excellent introduction for those wanting to see these films for the first time. — The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1996
