The Letters of Charles Lamb, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint) Charles Lamb,2016-07-17

Excerpt from The Letters of Charles Lamb Vol 1 When Southey becomes as modest as his pre decessor Milton and publishes his Epics in duodecimo I will read em a guinea a book is somewhat ex orbitant nor have I the opportunity of borrowing the work The extracts from it in the Monthly Review and the short passages in your Watchman seem to me much superior to any thing in his partnership account with Lovell Your poems I shall procure forthwith There were noble lines in What you inserted in one of your Numbers from Religious Musings but I thought them elaborate I am somewhat glad you have given up that paper it must have been dry unprofitable and of dissonant mood to your disposition I wish you success in all your undertakings and am glad to hear you are employed about the Evidences of Religion There is need of multiplying such books a hundred fold in this philosophical age to prevent converts to atheism for they seem too tough disputants to meddle with afterwards About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
