former comprise not only Petrarch's celebrated Italian poetry but also his often neglected Latin works the latter explore Petrarch's influence on and presence in French novels as well as poetry of the period both in and out of the canon Nineteenth century French Petrarchism has its roots in the later part of the previous century with formative contributions from Voltaire Rousseau and in particular the abb de Sade To these literary catalysts must be added the unification of Avignon with France at the Revolution as well as anniversary commemorations of Petrarch's birth and death celebrated in Avignon and Fontaine de Vaucluse across the period 1804 1874 1904 Situated at the crossroads of reception history medievalism and translation studies this investigation uncovers tensions between the competing construction of a national French Petrarch and a local Avignonese or Provençal poet Taking Petrarch as its litmus test this book also asks probing questions about the bases of nationality identity and belonging Jennifer Rushworth is a Junior Research Fellow at St John's College Oxford
