Americans to bind up their wounds in his Second Inaugural Address and in many ways the memorial was the result of the country's sectional reconciliation making it all the more fitting. In the end the time it took to complete the memorial was worth the wait as the finished product included a masterfully sculpted statue of Lincoln sitting in the middle of a giant structure that immediately brings to mind an Ancient Greek or Roman temple. Situated across the National Mall from the Washington Monument the Lincoln Memorial is perfectly positioned and thanks to Lincoln's presidency and freeing of the slaves the memorial has become a poignant symbol for protests especially at the height of the Civil Rights Movement when Martin Luther King Jr gave his I Have a Dream speech. More than four bloody years of civil war followed. Lincoln managed the government's effort to put down the rebellion and restore harmony to the country and in the process set the nation on the path toward ending slavery forever. The Lincoln Memorial on the National Mall in Washington D C commemorates Lincoln's accomplishments as well as his personal belief in the dignity and inherent equality of all people. It has been the site of many large gatherings and protests. IN THIS TEMPLE AS IN THE HEARTS OF THE PEOPLE FOR WHOM HE SAVED THE UNION THE MEMORY OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN IS ENSHRINED FOREVER. The epitaph by Royal Cortissoz engraved in the Lincoln Memorial. People have always loved symbols and monuments. Even before there was any sort of written language there were places and things considered sacred whether it was the Mesopotamians' ziggurats or the Egyptians' pyramids. Thus it had long been a practice to make some sort of memorial to those who had died as a way to remember and honor them. Abraham Lincoln is one of the most famous Americans in history and one of the country's most revered presidents. Schoolchildren can recite the life story of Lincoln the Westerner who educated himself and became a self-made man rising from lawyer to leader of the new Republican Party before becoming the 16th President of the United States. Lincoln successfully navigated the Union through the Civil War but didn't live to witness his crowning achievement becoming the first president assassinated when he was shot at Ford's Theater by John Wilkes Booth on April 14, 1865. Given the importance of Abraham Lincoln to the country, it's no surprise that plans to build monuments to him began within months of his death. There are countless ways that the Great Emancipator has been commemorated across America, but the most famous is the Lincoln Memorial, which would not be completed until well over half a century after his death. Lincoln had called upon Americans to bind up their wounds in his Second Inaugural Address, and in many ways the memorial was the result of the country's sectional reconciliation, making it all the more fitting. In the end, the time it took to complete the memorial was worth the wait, as the finished product included a masterfully sculpted statue of Lincoln sitting in the middle of a giant structure that immediately brings to mind an Ancient Greek or Roman temple. Schindler, Brian Anderson, 2021-11-08. The Lincoln Memorial in Washington DC is a monument to the nation's 16th president, a commemoration of the country's post-Civil War reunification and a setting for national events and quiet visits. Demands for a national memorial to Abraham Lincoln began shortly after his 1865 assassination but produced nothing substantial until the early 20th century. Elevation of Lincoln to legendary status and an extended debate over location and design finally led Congress in 1913 to approve a memorial at the west end of the National Mall. Construction took another eight years. Since its dedication in 1922, the Lincoln Memorial has hosted civil rights demonstrations, presidential events, national celebrations, and day and night visits by millions of people who come to reflect upon one of the most consequential leaders in American history. The Lincoln Memorial Jessica Gunderson, 2020-08.
