Standing Against Dragons:

Subversive Southerner Catherine Fosl, 2006-08-01 With a Foreword by Angela Y Davis Winner of the 2003 Oral History Association Book Award Winner of the 2003 Gustavus Myers Center for Human Rights Outstanding Book Award Anne McCarty Braden 1924 2006 was a courageous southern white woman who in the late 1940s rejected her segregationist and privileged past to become a lifelong crusader against racial discrimination Arousing the conscience of white southerners to the reality of racial injustice Braden was branded a communist and seditious by southern politicians who used McCarthyism to buttress legal and institutional segregation as it came under fire in deferral courts She became nevertheless one of the civil rights movement's staunchest white allies and one of five southern whites commended by Rev Martin Luther King Jr in his 1963 Letter from Birmingham Jail Although Braden remained a controversial figure even in the movement her commitment superseded her radical reputation and she became a mentor and advisor to students who launched the 1960s sit ins and to successive generations of peace and justice activists In this riveting oral history based biography Catherine Fosl also offers a social history of how racism sexism and anticommunism overlapped in the twentieth century south and how ripples from the Cold War divided and limited the southern civil rights movement

Standing Against Dragons Sarah Hart Brown, 2000-03-01 Standing Against Dragons examines the careers of three exceptional lawyers who championed civil liberties and fought for civil rights in the two decades after World War II John Coe of Pensacola Florida Clifford Durr of Montgomery Alabama and Benjamin Smith of New Orleans became southern dissenters resisting both the excessive zeal of the anti Communist right and southern segregation laws Coe Durr and Smith all appeared with their clients in the much publicized 1954 investigation of the Southern Conference Educational Fund and defended persons subpoenaed by the House Un American Activities Committee HUAC Coe represented the ardent integrationist who was the last man indicted for contempt by the HUAC and Smith's offices were raided in 1963 as a result of his civil rights work in Mississippi Despite personal and political differences these men remained committed civil libertarians in this era of repression While formally rejecting Communism defending freedom of expression and association in almost every instance these advocates in practice disavowed individualism in favor of the common good and feared the oppression of unbridled government Consequently they faced professional scorn personal ostracism and official harassment Sarah Hart Brown's astute analysis reveals the wide range of southern political ideas and defines the positions of southern liberals and radicals in the broader stream of American liberalism during the postwar period A WAR OF WYVERNS S.
