

A Falling Star

It saw amongst a bed of stars that twinkled in the sky
A falling star like one of ours
That fell from way up high

Gifts from heaven; that's what they are
That God is sharing here
If I could catch a falling star I'd know my Lord was near

I bow my head; hope and pray for one to go astray
In hopes a star would ricochet and one would fall my way

In the eyes of a beholder
The thought is so divine
My long life is getting older Hoping; this catch be mine

Star Poems:

Patchwork of Poems Moira Andrew, 2000 A collection of poems on popular themes familiar to young children Photocopiable and illustrated the poems provide opportunities for class discussion for poetry writing by the children and display of their work

The Poetry of Ernest Jones Myth, Song, and the 'Mighty Mind' Simon Rennie, 2016-05-20 As the last leader of the Chartist movement Ernest Charles Jones 1819-69 is a significant historical figure but he is just as well known for his political verse His prison composed epic The New World lays claim to being the first poetic exploration of Marxist historical materialism and his caustic short lyric The Song of the Low appears in most modern anthologies of Victorian poetry Despite the prominence of Jones's verse in Labour history circles and several major inclusions in critical discussions of working class Victorian literature this volume represents the first full length study of his poetry Through close analysis and careful contextualization this work traces Jones's poetic development from his early German and British Romantic influences through his radicalization imprisonment and years of leadership The poetry of this complex and controversial figure is here fully mapped for the first time

No Thanks E. E. Cummings, 2013-09-19 Reissued in an edition newly offset from the authoritative Complete Poems 1904-1962 edited by George James Firmage E. E. Cummings along with Pound Eliot and Williams helped bring about the twentieth century revolution in literary expression He is recognized as the author of some of the most beautiful lyric poems written in the English language and also as one of the most inventive American poets of his time Fresh and candid by turns earthy tender defiant and romantic Cummings's poems celebrate the uniqueness of each individual the need to protest the dehumanizing force of organizations and the exuberant power of love No Thanks was first published in 1935 although Cummings was by then in mid career he had still not achieved recognition and the title refers ironically to publishers rejections No Thanks contains some of Cummings's most daring literary experiments and it represents most fully his view of life romantic individualism The poems celebrate an openly felt response to the beauties of the natural world and they give first place to love especially sexual love in all its manifestations The volume includes such favorites as sonnet entitled how to run the world may I feel said he Jehovah buried Satan dead be of love a little and the now famous grasshopper poem
