

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming.

Whose broad stripes and bright stars
through the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.

O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Star Spangled Banner Words Music:

Star-Spangled Banner Marc Ferris,2014-09-13 In September 2014 Baltimore and the United States will mark the bicentennial of the event that inspired The Star Spangled Banner But Francis Scott Key s poem set to a British drinking song has not always been our anthem nor even especially popular Aiming at a broad readership Ferris examines the history of the song through the generations that followed the War of 1812 the kinds of Americans who rallied behind the song and the successful lobbying effort that in 1933 convinced Congress to adopt the music and four stanzas as our official national anthem Since then many citizens have called for its replacement with something less warlike people quarrel over its apparent militarism and also difficulty level Politically Ferris finds the song has an interesting and somewhat tortured story Are we the only nation on earth with a controversial national anthem Provided by publisher The Star-Spangled Banner United States.
