

The Stars

I look at the beautiful sky
and watch the stars.

It is peaceful when it's quiet and I am honest with myself.

Up in heaven there is paradise.
An angel is sending me greetings
with her beautiful smile.

The moon shines with the stars,
and it seems they have twin souls.

It is a perfect space made with the heart,
as I take the last breath of fresh air thanking this life for giving me the chance to admire true love.

Patchwork of Poems Moira Andrew,2000 A collection of poems on popular themes familiar to young children Photocopyable and illustrated the poems provide opportunities for class discussion for poetry writing by the children and display of their work Black Stars Ngo Tu Lap,2013-10-21 Simultaneously occupying past present and future Black Stars escapes the confines of time and space suffusing image with memory abstraction with meaning and darkness with abundant light In these masterful translations the poems sing out with the kind of wisdom that comes to those who have lived through war traveled far and seen a great deal While the past may evoke village life and the present a postmodern urban world the poems often exhibit a dual consciousness that allows the poet to reside in both at once From the universe to the self we see Lap s landscapes grow wider before they focus black stars receding to dark stairways infinity giving way to now Lap s universe is boundless yes but also just big enough To have four directions With just enough wind rain and trouble to last

A Season of Shooting Stars Dhaval Rathod,2019-02-11 No one ever only gets the daylight This night sky is ours too Let s claim it and light it up A Season of Shooting Stars is a constellation of verses pulled together to adorn the night sky of our lives and affect our souls in a positive and empathetic manner The poems explore an array of deeply felt emotions like love and its light heartbreak and dealing with it and healing They also address a range of themes like the universe and its unmistakable methods God and His expectations life and its partnership with us this world and our indisputable place in it For the purpose of enhanced stargazing the book is divided into five skies Heart Universe God and Life The fifth one is your soul

Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present Margaret Greaves,2023-05-23 Poetry and astronomy often travel together in the political sphere from Milton s meeting with Galileo under house arrest to NASA s practice of launching poems into space Anchored in the post war period but drawing on a long history of poetry and science Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present charts the surprising connection between poetry and extra terrestrial space In an era defined by the vast scales of globalization environmental disaster and space travel poets bring the small scales of lyric intimacy to bear on cosmic immensity While outer space might seem the domain of more popular genres lyric poetry has ancient and enduring associations with cosmic inquiry that have made it central to post war space culture As the Cold War played out in space American institutions and media from NASA to Star Trek enlisted poetry to present space exploration as a peaceful mission on behalf of humankind Meanwhile poets from across the globe have turned to the cosmos to contest American imperialism challenging conventional ideas about lyric poetry in the process Poets including Elizabeth Bishop Adrienne Rich Seamus Heaney Derek Walcott Agha Shahid Ali and Tracy K Smith invoke the extra terrestrial to interrogate national histories alongside their craft Dazzled by the aesthetics of astronomy but wary of its imperial uses poets employ astronomical figures and methods to imagine how we might care for both ourselves and others on a shared planet
