The Clansman:

In the Shadow of The Birth of a Nation Melvyn Stokes,Paul McEwan,2023-03-14 This collection brings together many of the world's leading scholars on race and film to reconsider the legacy and impact of D W Griffith's deeply racist 1915 epic The Birth of a Nation. While this film is often cited there is a considerable dearth of substantial research on its initial impact and global reach. These essays fill important gaps in the history of the film including essential work on its sources, international reception and African American responses. This book is a key text in the history of the most infamous and controversial film ever made and offers crucial new insights to scholars and students working in film history, African American history and the history of race relations.

Music and the Silent Film Martin Miller Marks,1997-02-13 In this book a leading authority on film music examines scores of the silent film era. The first of three projected volumes investigating music written for films this thoughtful and pathbreaking study demonstrates the richness of silent film music as it details the way in which scores were often planned from the start as an integral part of the whole cinematic experience. Following an introductory chapter that outlines several key theoretical questions and surveys eight decades of writing on film music Martin Miller Marks focuses on those scores created between 1895 and 1924. He begins by considering two early examples one German written by persons unknown for Skladanowsky's Bioskop exhibitions in 1895 and 1896 and one French scored by Camille Saint-Saëns for the 1908 film L'Assassinat du Duc de Guise. Subsequent chapters fully discuss Walter Cleveland Simon's music for the American film An Arabian Tragedy 1912 as well as the Joseph Breil accompaniment to D W Griffith's Birth of a Nation 1915. As described in this book Breil's memorable score though a compilation derived from many sources was played by an orchestra as Griffith's sweeping images filled the screen thus contributing significantly to the great film's success while also achieving remarkable power in its own right. Marks then concludes with a look at Erik Satie's witty and innovative music for the French film Entr'acte 1924 which was the first film score of consequence by an avant garde composer. Giving unprecedented attention to a vibrant, important and oft neglected facet of twentieth century music, Music and the Silent Film will interest scholars of film theory, film history, modern music and modern aesthetics.

Culture and Belonging in Divided Societies Marc Howard Ross,2009-03-24 Why do people invest so much emotional energy and resources in conflicts over images, symbols, rituals and other cultural expressions? The answers explored in Culture and Belonging in Divided Societies view such expressions as barriers to or opportunities for inclusion in a divided society's symbolic landscape and political life.

Stagestruck Filmmaker David Mayer,2009-03 An actor, a vaudevillian and a dramatist before he became a filmmaker, D W Griffith used the resources of theatre to great purpose and to great ends. In pioneering the quintessentially modern medium of film from the 1890s to the 1930s he drew from older, more broadly appealing stage forms of melodrama, comedy, vaudeville and variety. In Stagestruck Filmmaker David Mayer brings Griffith's process vividly to life, offering detailed and valuable insights into the racial, ethnic, class and gender issues of these transitional decades Combining the raw materials of theatre circus minstrelsy and dance with the newer visual codes of motion pictures Griffith became the first acknowledged artist of American film Birth of a Nation in particular demonstrates the degree to which he was influenced by the racist justifications and distorting interpretations of the Civil War and the Reconstruction era Moving through the major phases of Griffith s career in chapters organized around key films or groups of films Mayer provides a mesmerizing account of the American stage and cinema in the final years of the nineteenth century and the first three decades of the twentieth century Griffith s relationship to the theatre was intricate complex and enduring Long recognized as the dominant creative figure of American motion pictures throughout twenty six years of making more than five hundred films he pillaged adapted reshaped revitalized preserved and extolled By historicizing his representations of race ethnicity and otherness Mayer places Griffith within an overall template of American life in the years when film rivaled and then surpassed the theatre in popularity

Richard Wright's Native Son Andrew Warnes,2007-01-24 Richard Wright s Native Son 1940 is one of the most violent and revolutionary works in the American canon Controversial and compelling its account of crime and racism remain the source of profound disagreement both within African American culture and throughout the world This guide to Wright s provocative novel offers an accessible introduction to the text and contexts of Native Son a critical history surveying the many interpretations of the text from publication to the present a selection of reprinted critical essays on Native Son by James Baldwin Hazel Rowley Antony Dawahare Claire Eby and James Smethurst providing a range of perspectives on the novel and extending the coverage of key critical approaches identified in the survey section a chronology to help place the novel in its historical context suggestions for further reading Part of the Routledge Guides to Literature series this volume is essential reading for all those beginning detailed study of Native Son and seeking not only a guide to the novel but a way through the wealth of contextual and critical material that surrounds Wright s text

Hollywood As Historian Peter C. Rollins,2021-03-17 A commendably comprehensive analysis of the issue of Hollywood s ability to shape our minds invigorating reading Booklist Film has exerted a pervasive influence on the American mind and in eras of economic instability and international conflict the industry has not hesitated to use motion pictures for propaganda purposes During less troubled times citizens ability to deal with political and social issues may be enhanced or thwarted by images absorbed in theaters Tracking the interaction of Americans with important movie productions this book considers such topics as racial and sexual stereotyping censorship of films comedy as a tool for social criticism the influence of great men and their screen images and the use of film to interpret history Hollywood As Historian benefits from a variety of approaches Literary and historical influences are carefully related to The Birth of a Nation and Apocalypse Now two highly tendentious epics of war and cultural change How political beliefs of filmmakers affected cinematic styles is illuminated in a short survey of documentary films made during the Great Depression Historical distance has helped analysts decode messages unintended by filmmakers in the study of The Snake Pit and Dr Strangelove Hollywood As Historian offers a versatile thought provoking text for students of popular culture American studies film history or film as history Films considered include The Birth of a Nation 1915 The Plow that Broke the Plains 1936 The River 1937 March of Time 1935 1953 City Lights 1931 Modern Times 1936 The Great Dictator 1940 The Grapes of Wrath 1940 Native Land 1942 Wilson 1944 The Negro Soldier 1944 The Snake Pit 1948 On the Waterfront 1954 Dr Strangelove 1964 Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf 1966 and Apocalypse Now 1979 Recommended reading for anyone concerned with the influence of popular culture on the public perception of history American Journalism Race in American Literature and Culture John Ernest, 2022-06-16 Exploring the unsteady foundations of American literary history Race in American Literature and Culture examines the hardening of racial fault lines throughout the nineteenth century and into the twentieth while considering aspects of the literary and interrelated traditions that emerged from this fractured cultural landscape A multicultural study of the influential and complex presence of race in the American imagination the book pushes debate in exciting new directions Offering expert explorations of how the history of race has been represented and written about it shows in what ways those representations and writings have influenced wider American culture Distinguished scholars from African American Latinx Asian American Native American and white American studies foreground the conflicts in question across different traditions and different modes of interpretation and are thus able comprehensively and creatively to address in the volume how and why race has been so central to American literature as a whole Bradshaw's General (monthly) Railway and Steam Navigation Guide for Great Britain and Ireland ,1877 Censoring Racial Ridicule M. Alison Kibler, 2015-03-05 A drunken Irish maid slips and falls A greedy Jewish pawnbroker lures his female employee into prostitution An African American man leers at a white woman These and other similar images appeared widely on stages and screens across America during the early twentieth century In this provocative study M Alison Kibler uncovers for the first time powerful and concurrent campaigns by Irish Jewish and African Americans against racial ridicule in popular culture at the turn of the twentieth century Censoring Racial Ridicule explores how Irish Jewish and African American groups of the era resisted harmful representations in popular culture by lobbying behind the scenes boycotting particular acts and staging theater riots Kibler demonstrates that these groups tactics evolved and diverged over time with some continuing to pursue street protest while others sought redress through new censorship laws Exploring the relationship between free expression democracy and equality in America Kibler shows that the Irish Jewish and African American campaigns against racial ridicule are at the roots of contemporary debates over hate speech A Princess of Thule William Black, 1883 Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature System on the Farm , 1920 MacMillan's Magazine Sir George Grove, David Masson, John Morley, Mowbray Morris, 1873 Focus on The Birth of a Nation Fred
