The Coffee Trader:

The Coffee Trader David Liss, 2003-03-04 The Edgar Award winning novel A Conspiracy of Paper was one of the most acclaimed debuts of the year In his richly suspenseful second novel author David Liss once again travels back in time to a crucial moment in cultural and financial history His destination Amsterdam 1659 a mysterious world of trade populated by schemers and rogues where deception rules the day On the world's first commodities exchange fortunes are won and lost in an instant Miguel Lienzo a sharp witted trader in the city's close knit community of Portuguese Jews knows this only too well Once among the city's most envied merchants Miguel has lost everything in a sudden shift in the sugar markets Now impoverished and humiliated living on the charity of his petty younger brother Miguel must find a way to restore his wealth and reputation Miguel enters into a partnership with a seductive Dutchwoman who offers him one last chance at success a daring plot to corner the market of an astonishing new commodity called coffee To succeed Miguel must risk everything he values and test the limits of his commercial guile facing not only the chaos of the markets and the greed of his competitors but also a powerful enemy who will stop at nothing to see him ruined Miguel will learn that among Amsterdam's ruthless businessmen betrayal lurks everywhere and even friends hide secret agendas With humor imagination and mystery David Liss depicts a world of subterfuge danger and repressed longing where religious and cultural traditions clash with the demands of a new and exciting way of doing business Readers of historical suspense and lovers of coffee even decaf will be up all night with this beguiling novel

The Coffee Trader David Liss, 2003-03 Max Havelaar; Or, The Coffee Sales of the Netherlands Trading Company Multatuli, 1927 The Coffee public-house news, 1886 The Infinite Emotions of Coffee Alon Halevy, 2011

The Infinite Emotions of Coffee provides a contemporary prism of the drink that so much of the world takes for granted every morning Technopreneur Halevy's travels to more than 30 countries on six continents shed light on how coffee has shaped and is influenced by different cultures through the bean's centuries spanning journey of serendipity intrigue upheavals revival romance and passion With more than three years of field research over 180 color photographs and richly illustrated infographics this book is an immersive experience that brings alive the enduring allure of coffee and the nuanced emotions of both tradition bound and avant garde caf cultures Written in an engaging narrative this travelogue entertains through numerous coffee related tales from around the world It celebrates all parts of the inextricably linked global coffee ecosystem from growers importers and roasters to baristas and consumers Readers will learn about the rich mysterious and often amusing history of coffee discover the latest hotbeds of coffee and the complex issues facing the coffee industry today and meet the worldwide network of inspiringly spirited and passionately committed professionals whose relentless pursuit of excellence are pushing coffee to unprecedented levels of quality The histories of communication and coffee's impact on socialization are interconnected From the combined perspectives of a computer scientist and a coffee culturalist this book elucidates how coffee conversations have evolved from the age of exploration that characterized the 15th century through the Information Age where the Internet's spheres of influence in the world of coffee continue to expand

Vint Cerf Father of the Internet and Chief Internet Evangelist of Google This book is the ultimate celebration of coffee from seed to cup

Bravo Alejandro Mendez 2011 World Barista Champion El Salvador The scope of this collection of vignettes from around the world is unprecedented in coffee literature Its greatest strength is its unifying power that brings together all the players in the global coffee community

Sarah Allen Editor in Chief Barista Magazine

Forest Resources Management in Indonesia (1968-2004) Herman Hidayat, 2016-02-18 This book explores the forestry sector and its context investigating the management of forest resources in Indonesia It covers topics including forest fires deforestation water pollution depletion of biodiversity climate change and environmental damages The book adopts a political economy approach elaborating on the role of direct actors such as the central government private companies and local governments and the role of indirect actors In addition readers will discover anthropological and sociological perspectives through engagement with local communities such as the Kutai Banjar and Rejang ethnic groups Chinese trading communities NGOs and Academics Featuring interviews with 91 informants and participatory observations the text draws on secondary literature to provide a comprehensive overview of the subject This work is illustrated with figures tables and maps and will be of particular interest to students and researchers of forest policies It makes a valuable contribution to forest sciences and will also be useful to those in non government organizations politicians and business men with an interest in forest resources management or a deeper interest in Indonesia

Marx in the Field Alessandra Mezzadri, 2021-02-15

Marx in the Field is a unique edited collection illustrating the relevance of the Marxian method to study contemporary capitalism and the global development process Essays in the collection bring Marx to the field in three ways They illustrate how Marxian categories can be concretely deployed for field research in the global economy they analyse how these categories may be adapted during fieldwork and they discuss data collection methods supporting Marxian analysis Crucially many of the contributions expand the scope of Marxian analysis by combining its insights with those of other intellectual traditions including radical feminisms critical realism and postcolonial studies The book defines the possibilities and challenges of fieldwork guided by Marxian analysis including those emerging from the COVID 19 pandemic The collection takes a global approach to the study of development and of contemporary capitalism While some essays focus on themes and geographical areas of long term concern for international development like informal or rural poverty and work across South

Asia Southern and West Africa or South America others focus instead on actors benefitting from the development process like regional exporters larger farmers and traders or on unequal socio economic outcomes across richer and emerging economies and regions including Gulf countries North America Southern Europe or Post Soviet Central and Eastern Europe Some essays explore global processes cutting across the world economy connecting multiple regions actors and inequalities While some of the contributions focus on classic Marxian tropes in the study of contemporary capitalism like class labour and working conditions agrarian change or global commodity chains and prices others aim at demonstrating the relevance of the Marxian method beyond its traditional boundaries for instance for exploring the interplays between food nutrition and poverty the links between social reproduction gender and homework the features of migration and refugees regimes tribal chieftaincy structures or prison labour or the dynamics structuring global surrogacy Overall through the analysis of an extremely varied set of concrete settings and cases this book illustrates the extraordinary insights we can gain by bringing Marx in the field
