The Collected Poetry Of Robinson Jeffers Volume One 1920 1928:

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti modernist Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision how to connect present day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral spiritual or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena For Jeffers as for no other important modern American poet there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems the current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers lifetime or from his posthumous volume Now for the first time all of Jeffers completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition The first three volumes of this four volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers published work from 1920 to 1963 The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best known poems Tamar Roan Stallion The Women at Point Sur and Cawdor as well as a recently discovered long poem Home There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers: Poetry 1903-1920, prose, and unpublished writings Robinson Jeffers, 1988 The first three volumes of this four volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers published work from 1920 to 1963 Jeffers publishers sometimes adjusted his punctuation presumably to bring the poems punctuation into accord with grammatical convention The texts for this edition revert to Jeffers own preferences insofar as the best methods of modern textual editing can reveal them Nature's Writers Donald S. Clark, 2024-09-03 A photographic celebration of the landscapes that have influenced some of America's most important nature writers from John Muir to Terry Tempest Williams to Barbara Kingsolver Since 2019 Donald S. Clark has documented the places that have been instrumental in influencing the lives and words of both historic and contemporary nature and environmental writers throughout the United States While we have always felt their passionate connection to their own environments no book has ever made this visual connection between writers and their land before the relationship between prose and place Featuring more than 40 of America's most important writers the content is as far reaching as America itself from sea to shining sea forest to prairie and mountain to coastline Accompanying each gallery of stunning photography is a selected excerpt by the writer about their land With the increasingly noticeable effects of climate change the significance of these writers and their personal connections to the environment is even more timely This unique and compelling story of the land and how it has inspired some of our greatest poets and authors will make a wonderful gift for budding environmentalists students of nature writing or anyone interested in conservation      Inhuman Materiality in Gothic Media Aspasia Stephanou, 2019-05-13 This book examines the manifestations of materiality across different gothic media to show the inhuman at the heart of literature film and contemporary media outlining a philosophy of horror that deals with the horror of the nonhuman the machine and the nonorganic The author explores how materiality lends itself ideally to discussions of gothic and horror and acts as a threat to attempts to control meaning which falls outside the realm of consciousness It brings the two together by examining the manifestations of this materiality to focus on a form of horror that is concerned with the in human by reading blood as the conduit of an unnameable materiality that circulates through gothic media seducing with its familiar mask of gothic aesthetics only to uncover the horror of a totally alienating and inhuman otherness Film media popular culture philosophy and nineteenth century literature are brought together and juxtaposed to create a continuity of ideas and highlighting differences The book offers innovative readings of notions of blood inscription in different media of the Dark Web accelerationism and technoscience to account for the widespread haemophilia in contemporary culture This title is an essential read for researchers undergraduate and postgraduate students in film studies media studies literature philosophy cultural theory and popular culture Its interdisciplinary nature clear exposition of thought and theoretical ideas will make it a key resource for both students and for general readers with an interest in contemporary horror media and pop culture

Suffering and the Remedy of Art Harold Schweizer, 1997-01-01 This book suggests that a listening to suffering may profit from a literary hearing and vice versa It is not only that literature tells of suffering but that suffering may tell us something about the nature of literature      Ecocritical Aesthetics Peter Quigley, Scott Slovic, 2018-02-28 This lively collection of essays explores the vital role of beauty in the human experience of place interactions with other species and contemplation of our own embodied lives Devoting attention to themes such as global climate change animal subjectivity environmental justice and activism and human moral responsibility for the environment these contributions demonstrate that beauty is not only a meaningful dimension of our experience but also a powerful strategy for inspiring cultural transformation Taken as a whole they underscore the ongoing relevance of aesthetics to the ecocritical project and the concern for beauty that motivates effective social and political engagement      Westernness Alan Bacher Williamson, 2006 A first person meditation on the literary and visual arts of the American West Westernness A Meditation explores how this region has developed its own distinct culture in literature and painting from the point of view of someone who has been at different times in his life both a westerner and an easterner An engaging and astute reader and observer Alan Williamson uses his poetic lens to examine the new connections notably with the Far East that have been forged in the West but also the fear anxiety and sense of cultural vacancy that western artists have had to overcome in confronting their new landscape much as the writers of the American Renaissance did a century earlier Writing as a displaced easterner with significant western roots Williamson looks at writers and poets such as Cather Lawrence Steinbeck Jefferes Silko and Snyder as well as artists such as the Yosemite painters Georgia O Keeffe and Wayne Thiebaud to show how despite the inflated optimism of many western patriots the work of these individuals relates to the anxieties suffered by their eastern predecessors By revealing what he sees as the repetition of the evolution of American literature in the rise of western literature Williamson provides us with a fresh vantage point from which we can appreciate western literature art and culture and simultaneously dismantle the literary war between East and West A tribute to the author s lifelong engagement with a particular landscape and its writers Westernness speaks to the general reader who is curious about his or her native place and relationship to it as well as to scholars in literary and ecocritical studies

The Wild Truth Carine McCandless,2014-11-11 The success of Into the Wild brought Chris McCandless s story to millions of readers and movie goers but left them asking What set the stage for Chris s willingness to embrace the dangers of Alaska s wilderness Carine McCandless Chris s sister and closest friend witnessed firsthand the complex and abusive relationship Chris had with his father that formed his worldview Never before having shared this story Carine has spent more than 20 years seeking the same understanding reconciliation and absolution she believes Chris finally found in an abandoned school bus in Alaska In this touching and deeply personal memoir she reveals how she has learned that real redemption can only come from speaking the truth
