Texts And Their Transformations:

Tang Transformation Texts Victor H. Mair, 2020-10-26 This is the most comprehensive study of pien wen transformation texts i.e. tales of metamorphosis in any language since the manuscripts were discovered at the beginning of the 20th century in a remote cave complex in northwest China. They are the earliest written vernacular narratives in China and are thus extremely important in the history of Chinese language and literature. Numerous scholarly controversies have surrounded the study of the texts in the last three quarters of a century; this volume seeks to resolve some of them: the extent, origins and formal characteristics of the texts; the meaning of pien wen; the identity of the authors who composed these popular narratives and the scribes who copied them; the relationship of the texts to oral performance and the reasons for the apparently sudden demise of the genre around the beginning of the Sung dynasty. This is a multi-disciplinary study that integrates findings from religious, literary, linguistic, sociological and historical materials, carried out with intellectual rigor. It includes an extensive bibliography of relevant sources in many languages.

The People's Poet Transformed Geoff Goodfellow, Rebecca Bond, 2018-06-07 The People's Poet Transformed is a gem of a book positioned beautifully to engage young people with language so that they see how powerful literature can be created out of everyday life, deeply and sensitively observed. Road-tested by teachers, it encourages students to become creators of ideas and texts and to use language to transform both texts and their own view of themselves as people with stories worth hearing. Garry Costello, Former secondary principal, English teacher and Chief Education Officer for DECD South Australia. Geoff Goodfellow has been an outspoken voice in schools over many years, engaging thousands of students through his poems to think about contemporary issues with his honesty, passion and wit. This wonderful publication combines Geoff's powerful poetry and prose with Rebecca Bond's creative teaching practice to provide excellent approaches to the compulsory Transformation Task in the new SACE Stage 1 English course as well as Stage 2 English Literary Studies. Alison Robertson, President, South Australian Teachers Association. To see Geoff Goodfellow perform is to be caught up in vignettes of experience and observation that become dramatically real. Geoff's collaboration with educator Rebecca Bond is that rare find: an engaging and accessible text that actually works in the classroom. The People's Poet Transformed is worthy of immediate use by teachers and students directly relevant to Senior English. Geoff's new book will quickly become a go-to resource for those seeking inspiration for any transformative task. Richard Noone, Curriculum Leader, English, Westminster School, South Australia. Geoff Goodfellow knows all about transformation. His poetry unerringly conveys a multiplicity of profound messages to those from any place or background: important human messages of life, death, love, hate, despair, hope, sadness and joy, transformative emotions all. Maybe just maybe, burrowing deep into this wonderful new book will assist you with your own incredible life-affirming personal transformation. Let's open it and find out. Lloyd Cook, English Senior, Geelong Grammar, Victoria.

The Transformation of Torah from Scribal Advice to Law Anne Fitzpatrick-McKinley, 1999-06-01 Recent discussion of biblical law sees it either as a response to socio economic factors or as an intellectual tradition In either case it is viewed as the product of elites that form an international community drawing on a common culture This book takes that fundamental discussion a step further by proposing that law is an inappropriate term for the biblical codes and that they represent rather the moral advice of scribes working independently of the legal framework and appealing to Yahweh as authority Only by prolonged exegesis and through the transformation of Judaeen religion does this advice take the form of divine law binding on Jews
