Textual Analysis Of Movie Director Oliver Stones Nixon:

A Textual Analysis of Movie Director Oliver Stone's Nixon Russ Witcher,2004 This critical analysis of director Oliver Stone's Nixon argues that the screenplay and film are early attempts in American cinema to put the life of Richard Nixon in proper historical perspective Although known for his provocative and controversial approach in his films toward people and events of the 1960s and 70s in America Stone has delivered an evenhanded account of the impact of Nixon on American history Previous portrayals of Nixon in television and movie dramas had largely depicted Nixon as either the incarnation of evil or as an oddly comic character worthy of satirizing Stone's film is one of the first to present Nixon properly as the brilliant complicated and ultimately flawed geopolitical thinker that he was This book is appropriate for anyone interested in the Cold War American film or popular art and politics and adds to the study of the media's depiction of history and historical figures

The Changing Face of Evil in Film and Television ,2007-01-01 The popular media of film and television surround us daily with images of evil images that have often gone critically unexamined In the belief that people in ever increasing numbers are turning to the media for their understanding of evil this lively and provocative collection of essays addresses the changing representation of evil in a broad spectrum of films and television programmes Written in refreshingly accessible and de jargonised prose the essays bring to bear a variety of philosophical and critical perspectives on works ranging from the cinema of famed director Alfred Hitchcock and the preternatural horror films Halloween and Friday the 13th to the understated documentary Human Remains and the television coverage of the immediate post 9 11 period The Changing Face of Evil in Film and Television is for anyone interested in the moving image representation of that pervasive yet highly misunderstood thing we call evil

American History and Contemporary Hollywood Film Andrew Pepper,Trevor McCrisken,2019-08-06 Hollywood has a growing fascination with America's past This is evidenced in the release of a rash of films of this genre in the past 25 years This book offers an analysis of how and why contemporary Hollywood films have sought to mediate American history It is the first book to explore comprehensively the post Cold War period of film making and to consider whether or how far contemporary films have begun to unravel the unifying myths of earlier films and periods It also considers why such films are becoming increasingly integral to the ambitions of a globally focused American film industry The relationship between film and history the way in which film mediates history and vice versa is a complex one In this book the authors work from two main assumptions First that films revision events to challenge or perhaps more typically to reaffirm traditional historical interpretations Second that this process can only be understood in the context of contemporary debates about identity politics America's role in world affairs and the globalisation of the American film business The book is structured by historical periods and includes chapters on The American Revolution Revolution The Patriot Slavery Roots Amistad The Civil War Gettysburg Glory Ride with the Devil Cold Mountain World War II Saving Private Ryan Thin Red Line Pearl Harbor Oliver Stone and the Decade of Trauma Platoon Born on the Fourth of July Heaven and

Earth Nixon Civil Rights and Black Nationalism Panther Mississippi Burning The Hurricane Malcolm X Ali American Interventionism Three Kings Black Hawk Down Key Features Unique the only book to provide comprehensive analysis of the relationship between film and American history in the post Cold War era Topical ex Media and Society James Curran,2010-09-01 This is the fifth edition of a highly respected collection of essays from some of the world's leading scholars Boasting fifteen new chapters it is the most international and up to date introduction to media studies Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research Association,2005 Includes both books and articles Films about Jewish Life and Culture Michael Taub,2005 Taub writes with clarity and insight about various dimensions of Jewish life and culture as they are portrayed in film His discussions range from antisemitism to the Holocaust and from the religious life of American Jews to Hollywood's representation of Israel

The Political Thriller in Contemporary American Cinema Krešimir Bobaš,2025-06-30 The Political Thriller in Contemporary American Cinema examines how political thriller films deconstruct and reflect the sociopolitical realities of the second half of the twentieth century as well as the first two decades of the twenty first century The book highlights the convergence between the cinematic narrative its underlying political discourse and the audience's perception of it Through a critical lens it analyzes how contemporary films utilize characterization narrative and suspense to examine topics of governance malfeasance and power dynamics By referring to films such as The Manchurian Candidate Zero Dark Thirty and Snowden this book traces the evolution of the political thriller questioning how its narratives mirror issues such as covert operations the erosion of democracy and governmental surveillance In turn the conspiratorial and underlying paranoid nature of these films serves as a reflection of societal anxieties and a metaphorization of the levers of power in America's modern day democracy Consequently this book serves as a contribution to the growing body of research on political cinema and the way it simultaneously reflects and shapes political life through its role as a sociocultural phenomenon In doing so it invites readers to further delve into the exploration of these films which represent complex commentaries on the structures of corporations media and the military that are predominant in contemporary American society and cinema
