Textual Commentary on the Greek New Testament (UBS6) H. A. G. Houghton, 2025-10-07 This all new edition of A Textual Commentary on the Greek New Testament uses the Greek text of the 29th edition of the Nestle Aland Novum Testamentum Graece NA29 and the 6th edition of the United Bible Societies Greek New Testament UBS6 and comments on all apparatus entries of UBS6 in concise and comprehensible language The edition is also suitable for use with the Nestle Aland as the Nestle Aland also contains all the apparatus entries of UBS6 with a different selection of witnesses In addition a detailed introduction provides key information on New Testament textual tradition basic principles of textual criticism and guidelines for using the UBS Greek New Testament The author is a member of the editorial committee for NA29 and UBS6 and is therefore ideally suited to explain the decisions made by the committee in its preparation of these critical editions The 2025 version replaces Bruce M Metzger's A Textual Commentary on the Greek New Testament which has been regarded as the standard work for decades but is now outdated in terms of research history The Significance of the Byzantine Text for Textual Criticism Within the Book of Acts Hassan Aziz Siddiqui, 2025-09-09 The overall Greek manuscript evidence for the Acts of the Apostles displays the most significant textual variation of any New Testament book For over two hundred years textual critics have sought to resolve these difficulties Building upon the excellent work of Editio Critica Maior 2017 an update to NA28 this volume tackles these concerns and seeks to improve the text of Acts still further All data sets were considered e g the Byzantine mainstream tradition was not ignored Uniquely a more primitive form of the Western tradition than the one represented by Codex D was used as a basis of comparison Finally no regionally authorized ancient formal recensions were assumed The book answers the following questions How can a new text critical canon inspired by manuscript 614 help the process Was Luke the author of two significantly different editions of Acts e g one like Codex B Alexandrian tradition and one like Codex D Western tradition Which of the three main traditions preserves the most accurate text How accurate is the Editio Critica Maior Are there clear and justifiable improvements to be made Finally what do the three great textual traditions each contribute toward the goal of best approximating Luke's original wording Introduction to the Textual Criticism of the Greek New Testament Eberhard Nestle, 1901

Changing the Goalpost of New Testament Textual Criticism Abidan Paul Shah, 2020-10-02 Before the 1960s the goal of New Testament Textual Criticism was singular to retrieve the original text of the New Testament Since then the goalpost has incrementally shifted away from the original text to retrieving any text or many texts of the NT Some scholars have even concluded that the original text is hopelessly lost and cannot be retrieved with any confidence or accuracy Other scholars have gone a step further to claim that the idea of an original text itself is a misconception that needs to be abandoned If this new approach in NTTC is correct then the authority of Scripture is weakened or no longer valid It will be shown in this book that such is not the case Furthermore emphasis will be placed on the need to return to the traditional goalpost of NTTC i e to retrieve the original text Without a generally definitive text the door will be left wide open to recreate any desired text of the NT An unsettled original text will result in an unsettled biblical theology due to a lack of any authoritative and standard text Consequently it will lead to an unsettled Christian faith and practice Introduction to the Textual Criticism of the Greek New Testament Eberhard Nestle, 2001-09-25
