Thailand and the Struggle for Southeast Asia Donald Edwin Nuechterlein, 1966 Contemporary Conflicts in Southeast Asia Mikio Oishi, 2015-11-30 This book looks at major contemporary conflicts intra and interstate in Southeast Asia from a conflict management perspective Starting with the view that the conventional ASEAN conflict management methods have ceased to be effective it looks for new conflict management patterns and trends by investigating seven contemporary cases of conflict in the region Focusing on the incompatibilities involved in each case and examining how they have been managed whether by integration co existence elimination or maneuvering around the conflict the book sheds new light on the significance of managing conflict in achieving and maintaining the stability of the Southeast Asian region It makes a significant theoretical contribution to the field of peace and conflict studies by proposing the concept of mediation regime as the key to understanding current conflict management within ASEAN Race, Ethnicity and Religion in Conflict Across Asia Kunal Mukherjee, 2021-02-27 This book looks at conflict zones in the Asia Pacific with a special focus on secessionist groups movements in the Indian Northeast Tibet Chinese Xinjiang the Burmese borderlands Kashmir in South Asia CHT in Bangladesh South Thailand and Aceh in Indonesia These conflict zones are predominantly ethnic minority provinces which by and large do not share a sense of oneness with the country that they are currently a part of most of these insurgencies have had strong linkages with separatist nationalist groups in the region Methodologically the author uses extensive fieldwork interview data and participant observation from these conflict zones to take a bottom up approach giving importance to the voices of ordinary people and or the residents of these conflict zones whose voices have generally been ignored Although the book looks at both the historical background and contemporary dimensions of these conflicts the author focuses on exploring how the role of race ethnicity and religion in these conflicts can be both direct and indirect This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conflict and security in contemporary Asia with a background in politics history IR security studies religion and sociology Conflict and Stability in Southeast Asia Mark W. Zacher, Robert Stephen Milne, 1974 Monograph on international relations in South East Asia covers the foreign policy role of USA and role of China in the region and includes internal politics and regional level conflicts etc References The Seri Thai Movement and Political Conflict in Thailand, 1938-1949 Sōrasak Ngāmkačhōnkunlakit, 2001 Asia's Trouble Spots A. S. Bhalla, 2019-08-06 The art of successful negotiations over protracted conflicts presupposes a political commitment to peace and a willingness to compromise which are sorely lacking in the current disorderly world Part of the blame for this lies in weak and ineffective national and global leadership This book's sharp focus on the role of leadership at different levels national government rebel and Western regional government mediators as well as that of the UN and non governmental players in settling intra state disputes is a unique feature which sets it apart from others Much of the existing literature does not adequately discuss the role of the above actors in developing countries Asia s Trouble Spots is a serious attempt to fill this gap The seven country studies in Asia Myanmar Indonesia Philippines Thailand Sri Lanka India and China discuss inter alia how peace negotiations between national political and rebel leaders have unfolded The role of state sponsored cross border terrorists and non state spoilers such as Al Qaeda and ISIS is addressed in the context of geopolitical rivalry among regional and global powers A S Bhalla challenges the view that Western leaders can act as impartial mediators in intra state and inter state disputes With few exceptions their record has been dismal at best Their failure in conflict resolution arises from a loss of moral authority and credibility which follows the gradual erosion over the years of such liberal values as the rule of law and respect for democracy and human rights Commercial and strategic self interests have also tended to undermine peacebuilding efforts

Whither Southeast Asia Terrorism? Arabinda Acharya,2014-12-30 More than 11 years after the 9 11 attacks and 10 years after the October 2002 Bali bombings the need for a comprehensive assessment of what the countries in Southeast Asia have achieved is overdue We need to consider whether the strategies against both the domestic and transnational terrorist and extremist threat have been appropriate and have yielded desired results The aim of this book is to make a comprehensive assessment of the threats of terrorism and extremism in the region and of the policies and practices adopted by the regional countries to counter the same It is also necessary to evaluate if the region has become a safer place after the decade long fight Most importantly it is time to ask if we need a rethink or develop a new strategy to contain and manage the threats of terrorism and extremism Muslim Merit-making in Thailand's Far-South Christopher M.
