James Bond and the Sixties Spy Craze Thom Shubilla, 2024-04-02 James Bond the the 60s Spy Craze will explore James Bond films and the number of movies and television shows of the 1960s inspired by Ian Fleming's character The book also delves into the production casting merchandise and music that helped to make James Bond a household name and a cultural touchstone The 1960s spy craze lasted seven years ostensibly from 1962 1969 peaking in 1966 1967 However in that time many secret agent films flooded theaters and drive ins and television shows filled station line ups in the United States throughout the 1960s All of which were directly inspired by the first James Bond adventure to hit the big screen Dr No 1962 This is the story from a historical perspective of those films and how they became a part of American pop culture The book explores the various other top agents of the time Matt Helm Dereck Flint and Harry Palmer and the many spy spoof imitators coming from the United States England Europe and Mexico and discusses the impact James Bond had on each of these films and the ways in which James Bond influenced media Also discussed are budgets casting production box office numbers ratings development merchandising and how these elements have contributed to the success and longevity of the popularity of James Bond films

The Foreign Film Renaissance on American Screens, 1946-1973 Tino Balio, 2010-11-05 Largely shut out of American theaters since the 1920s foreign films such as Open City Bicycle Thief Rashomon The Seventh Seal Breathless La Dolce Vita and L'Avventura played after World War II in a growing number of art houses around the country and created a small but influential art film market devoted to the acquisition distribution and exhibition of foreign language and English language films produced abroad Nurtured by successive waves of imports from Italy Great Britain France Sweden Japan and the Soviet Bloc the renaissance was kick started by independent distributors working out of New York by the 1960s however the market had been subsumed by Hollywood From Roberto Rossellini's Open City in 1946 to Bernardo Bertolucci's Last Tango in Paris in 1973 Tino Balio tracks the critical reception in the press of such filmmakers as Francois Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Federico Fellini Michelangelo Antonioni Tony Richardson Ingmar Bergman Akira Kurosawa Luis Bu uel Satyajit Ray and Milos Forman Their releases paled in comparison to Hollywood fare at the box office but their impact on American film culture was enormous The reception accorded to art house cinema attacked motion picture censorship promoted the director as auteur and celebrated film as an international art Championing the cause was the new cinephile generation which was mostly made up of college students under thirty The fashion for foreign films depended in part on their frankness about sex When Hollywood abolished the Production Code in the late 1960s American made films began to treat adult themes with maturity and candor In this new environment foreign films lost their cachet and the art film market went into decline
