The A.W. Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts Judy Metro, 2002      The A.W. Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts (U.S.), 2002      The A.W. Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts Judy Metro, Elizabeth Cropper, 2002 The A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts were begun in 1952 at the National Gallery of Art in order to bring the best in contemporary scholarship to the public To mark the 50th anniversary of the acclaimed series the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts has published this illustrated documentary volume It tells the story of the genesis of the lectureship featuring essays by a variety of contemporary scholars that discuss the first 50 lecturers ranging from Jacques Maritain to Salvatore Settis and including such influential speakers as Anthony Blunt Kenneth Clark H W Janson E H Gombrich Kathleen Raine Jacques Barzun and Arthur Danto and their fields of expertise the subject matter and historical context for their talks These writings provide a sense of the significance of the lectureship and its participants through commentary critique and personal anecdotes      Anglo-American Exchange in Postwar Sculpture, 1945-1975 Rebecca Peabody, 2011-12-31 Anglo American Exchange in Postwar Sculpture 1945 1975 redresses an important art historical oversight Histories of American and British sculpture are usually told separately with artists and their work divided by nationality yet such boundaries obscure a vibrant exchange of ideas individuals and aesthetic influences In reality the postwar art world saw dynamic interactions between British and American sculptors critics curators teachers and institutions Using works of art as points of departure this book explores the international movement of people objects and ideas demonstrating the importance of Anglo American exchange to the history of postwar sculpture      The A.W. Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts , 2019*      The Moment of Caravaggio Michael Fried, 2023-10-17 A major reevaluation of Caravaggio from one of today s leading art historians This is a groundbreaking examination of one of the most important artists in the Western tradition by one of the leading art historians and critics of the past half century In his first extended consideration of the Italian Baroque painter Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio 1573 1610 Michael Fried offers a transformative account of the artist s revolutionary achievement Based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts delivered at the National Gallery of Art The Moment of Caravaggio displays Fried s unique combination of interpretive brilliance historical seriousness and theoretical sophistication providing sustained and unexpected readings of a wide range of major works from the early Boy Bitten by a Lizard to the late Martyrdom of Saint Ursula The result is an electrifying new perspective on a crucial episode in the history of European painting Focusing on the emergence of the full blown gallery picture in Rome during the last decade of the sixteenth century and the first decades of the seventeenth Fried draws forth an expansive argument one that leads to a radically revisionist account of Caravaggio s relation to the self portrait of the role of extreme violence in his art as epitomized by scenes of decapitation and of the deep structure of his epoch defining realism Fried also gives considerable attention to the art of Caravaggio s great rival Annibale Carracci as well as to the work of Caravaggio's followers including Orazio and Artemisia Gentileschi, Bartolomeo Manfredi and Valentin de Boulogne. Please note: All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size.

Michelangelo's Sculpture Leo Steinberg, 2018-11-28

Leo Steinberg was one of the most original and daring art historians of the twentieth century, known for taking interpretative risks that challenged the profession by overturning reigning orthodoxies. In essays and lectures that ranged from old masters to contemporary art, he combined scholarly erudition with an eloquent prose that illuminated his subject and a credo that privileged the visual evidence of the image over the literature written about it. His works, sometimes provocative and controversial, remain vital and influential reading. For half a century, Steinberg delved into Michelangelo's work, revealing the symbolic structures underlying the artist's highly charged idiom. This volume of essays and unpublished lectures explicates many of Michelangelo's most celebrated sculptures, applying principles gleaned from long, hard looking. Almost everything Steinberg wrote included passages of old-fashioned formal analysis, but here put to the service of interpretation. He understood that Michelangelo's rendering of figures, as well as their gestures and interrelations, conveys an emblematic significance masquerading under the guise of naturalism. Michelangelo pushed Renaissance naturalism into the furthest reaches of metaphor, using the language of the body and its actions to express fundamental Christian tenets, once expressible only by poets and preachers. Or, as Steinberg put it, in Michelangelo's art, anatomy becomes theology. Michelangelo's Sculpture is the first in a series of volumes of Steinberg's selected writings and unpublished lectures, edited by his longtime associate Sheila Schwartz. The volume also includes a book review debunking psychoanalytic interpretation of the master's work, a light-hearted look at Michelangelo and the medical profession, and finally, the shortest piece Steinberg ever published.

This volume of essays and unpublished lectures elucidates many of Michelangelo's paintings, from frescoes in the Sistine Chapel to the Conversion of St. Paul and the Crucifixion of St. Peter, the artist's lesser-known works in the Vatican's Pauline Chapel. Also included is a study of the relationship of the Doni Madonna to Leonardo. Steinberg's perceptions evolved from long, hard looking. Almost everything he wrote included passages of old-fashioned formal analysis, but always put into the service of interpretation.
