Two suspicious deaths challenge DS Alan Banks and his crack investigative team The body of an attractive young woman dressed in evening attire is found in an abandoned car on a country road The death looks like suicide but there are too many open questions for Banks and his team to rule out foul play The car didn't belong to her it was badly damaged in an accident involving the vehicle's owner a week earlier in the same spot So how did the dead girl get inside the car Did someone place her there and if so why Where and when did she die While Banks attends the postmortem DI Annie Cabot is at the scene of another death A well dressed man in his sixties has been found in a gully high up on the wild moorland His injuries were fatal and consistent with those sustained in a fall Was it an accident did the man get too close to the edge and slip Was he pushed The man was wearing an expensive suit What was he doing in a rocky spot popular with hikers There are no signs of a vehicle near where he fell How did he get there Banks' and Cabot's cases share a few curious similarities Both of the dead were found in the same area of the moorlands Both were elegantly dressed The timing of their deaths coincided And neither carried identification As the police uncover who these people were and begin to look into their lives inconsistencies multiply and the mysteries surrounding the two cases proliferate Then a source close to Annie reveals a piece of information that rocks the Eastvale detectives working both investigations An old enemy has returned in a new guise a nefarious foe who will stop at nothing not even murder to get what he wants With the stakes raised the hunt is on But will Banks and his crack squad be able to find the evidence to stop him in time
