A Theory of Spectral Rhetoric Seth Pierce, 2021-08-23 This book synthesizes Jacques Derrida's hauntology and spectrality with affect theory in order to create a rhetorical framework analyzing the felt absences and hauntings of written and oral texts The book opens with a history of hauntology spectrality and affect theory and how each of those ideas have been applied The book then moves into discussing the unique elements of the rhetorical framework known as the rhetorrectional situation Three case studies taken from the Christian tradition serve to demonstrate how spectral rhetoric works The first is fictional C S Lewis The Great Divorce The second is non fiction Tim Jennings The God Shaped Brain The final one is taken from homiletics Bishop Michael Curry's royal wedding 2018 sermon After the case studies conclusion offers the reader a summary and ideas future applications for spectral rhetoric E\(n\)stranged: Rethinking Defamiliarization in Literature and Visual Culture Nilgun Bayraktar, Alberto Godioli, 2024-10-24 Various translated as estrangement enstrangement or defamiliarization Viktor Shklovsky's concept of ostranenie is more relevant than ever This collection offers new insights into the theories and practices of ostranenie across various languages and cultures with a particular focus on the 20th and 21st centuries Our current era is marked by a dramatic redefinition of the normal and the strange the familiar and the weird The rise of far right populism has increasingly normalized xenophobic and nativist stances previously confined to the fringes of the political spectrum Additionally the climate crisis has led to the ongoing renegotiation of the concepts of normalcy and emergency amid widespread efforts to adapt to the new abnormal Exploring defamiliarization provides a unique perspective to comprehend and question these processes and their profound cultural implications Focusing on ostranenie also offers valuable insights into how aesthetic forms serve a political function Defamiliarization can take on various forms including retro futuristic dystopias stylized films and darkly humorous cartoons and memes It can be an effective tool for political activation that relies on formal innovation rather than superficial emotional engagement This collection brings together the work of a group of scholars examining defamiliarization across different media It explores questions such as How can we differentiate between various forms of defamiliarization and analyze their effects on the reader viewer How is defamiliarization connected to the weird the eerie or the uncanny As a result the collection offers an updated theoretical framework for understanding the wide range of emergent artistic and literary practices of enstrangement in the current era and their significant political affordances Chapter 6 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com Dark Scenes from Damaged Earth Justin D.  Combining Lacanian psychoanalytic theory Iranian Shi'ite thought and Islamicate sexualities Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis The Interpreter of Desires provides a groundbreaking analysis of the logic of desire and sexuality in key films of contemporary Iranian cinema arguing that there is a profound albeit surprising correlation between post revolutionary Iranian cinema and psychoanalysis that has remained unthought Looking through the prism of psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi argues that censorship on the representation and expression of sexual desire in Iranian films has contrary to the desired effect produced a cinema of desire This book is the first to provide an analysis of the unconscious structure of desire and sexuality operative in post revolutionary Iranian cinema demonstrating that psychoanalytic literature is uniquely positioned to shed light on this aspect of film Kazemi uncovers the hidden libidinal economy of Iranian cinema by exposing the fact that despite the State censor's desire to suppress desire it has inadvertently inscribed desire in its formal structure The book offers a compelling and innovative examination of Iranian cinema through a psychoanalytic lens contributing significantly to the field of film studies Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis will be of great interest to academics and scholars of film studies psychoanalytic studies Lacanian theory film theory Iranian cinema global cinema Iranian studies and Middle Eastern studies
