collection of original essays written by prominent scholars recognized for their achievements in a wide range of disciplines defines trauma as a disruption in the fragile process of symbolization or the human capacity to imbue life with meaning by representing the self's immortality The contributors analyze the multiple meanings and deeper significance of trauma whether of shell shocked war veterans or victims of sexual abuse and they discuss its manifestations both subtle and obvious Stefaan E. Cuypers, 2001 We are all persons or selves But what exactly does it mean that we possess an identity and framework of contemporary analytical anthropology a blend of analytical philosophy of mind and action with moral psychology Cuypers critically examines the empiricist bundle theory and metaphysical ego theory of self identity as well as the hierarchical Frankfurt Dworkin model of personal autonomy Arguing that all these standard views are found wanting Cuypers then offers an alternative personalist theory of personal identity plus an innovative moderately heteronomous theory of autonomy without ever going beyond the analytical frame of reference In critical discussion with analytical philosophers
