THE COWBOY SURPRISE

BY WILLIAM WISE

Illustrated by PAUL CALDONE

Mike and Holly were good friends. They both lived on the same street, and they liked to play together. They rode their bicycles to a nearby park every day. And both Mike and Holly had no busy gnomes.

None of the other boys and girls at school had no busy gnomes, and sometimes they made fun of Mike and Holly because they looked different from everyone else. This made both Mike and Holly very unhappy. They didn't know what to do.

One day Mike went to Bill Williams, the World's Greatest Cowboy, and he asked, "He and his wife, Miss Anna, and their son, Mike, had come to the park and park. And when they sat down, Mike and Holly were very happy to see their gnomes. And all the other children wished they could see gnomes too. What happened when Bill Williams turned his son, but not in THE COWBOY surprise?"
