The Crystal Shogun Philip Thorpe,1995    The Shogun's Silver Telescope Timon Screech,2020-10-15 The East India Company founded in London in 1600 was originally a spice trading organisation But its governors soon began to think bigger After a decade they started to plan voyages to more fabulous places notably India and Japan Rich in silver Japan was a desirable trading partner crucially it was also cold in winter England s main export was woollen cloth which would not sell in hot places so the Company envisaged adding to its spice runs by sailing back and forth to Japan exchanging wool for silver Maps suggested that this could be done quickly above Russia But these maps also made Japan twenty times too large the size of India in fact Knowing the Spanish and Portuguese had preceded them the Company prepared a special present for its first extended sailing to India and Japan In the end the Company missed India but got to Japan in 1613 The Shogun the military dictator of Japan was presented with a silver telescope in the name of King James It was the first telescope ever to leave Europe and the first made as a presentation item Before this initial ship had even returned the Company dispatched another named the New Year s Gift with an equally stunning cargo almost 100 oil paintings These would be given and sold to the Indian and Japanese courts This book looks at the formation and history of the Company but mostly examines the meaning of these two extraordinary cargoes What were they supposed to mean and what effect did they have on quizzical Asian rulers

The Shogun's Silver Telescope and the Cargo of the New Year's Gift Timon Screech,2020-10-15 The East India Company founded in London in 1600 was the world s biggest trading organization until the twentieth century It was originally a spice trading organization and its existence was precarious in its early years But its governors soon began to think bigger A decade after its foundation they started to plan voyages to more adventurous places notably Japan Japan had silver was cold in winter and had no sheep so was a perfect market for England s main export woollen cloth The Company planned to add to its spice runs sailing back and forth to Japan exchanging wool for silver This could be done quickly and easily over the top of Russia or so the maps of the day suggested these same maps also showed Japan twenty times too large about the size of India Knowing the Spanish and Portuguese had got there before them the Company prepared a special present to impress and win over their Japanese hosts They chose as their first gift a silver telescope The expedition carrying the telescope departed in 1611 and the Shogun was finally presented with the telescope in the name of King James I in 1613 It was the first telescope ever to leave Europe and the first made as a presentation item Before this voyage had even returned the Company had dispatched another with an equally stunning cargo nearly a hundred oil paintings This is the story of these two extraordinary cargoes what they meant for the fortunes of the Company what the choice of them says about the seventeenth century England from which they came and what effect they had on the quizzical Asian rulers to whom they were given

Dalton Prince Albert Victor (Duke of Clarence and Avondale), 1886 The East Prince Albert Victor (Duke of Clarence and Avondale), George V (King of Great Britain), 1886 The Deshima Diaries 1641-1660, 2023-10-09 The present volume of The Deshima Diaries consists of the journals that were kept by the chiefs of the Dutch trading post in Japan during the first two decades of the so called seclusion period 1640-1868 The employees of the Dutch East India Company from 1640 the only Europeans in Japan had to give up their relatively free life in the port of Hirado and were forced to move to the tiny island of Deshima in the Bay of Nagasaki Continually surrounded by Japanese guards spies cooks concubines and interpreters they were eager to continue their trading activities with their Japanese hosts Every year with a few exceptions the chief of the factory and two or three staff members travelled to Edo to pay obeisance to the Shogun The diaries in this volume describe in detail how the Dutch merchants grappled with the severe restrictions that were imposed on them but their writings also shed surprising light on social and economic life in Nagasaki and beyond The East Prince Albert Victor (Duke of Clarence and Avondale), 1886 The Deshima Diaries, 2021-10-25 English translation of the marginalia or marginal notes that were added to the text of the Deshima Diaries from the 1670s onwards in order to provide the Dutch chief of Deshima with a quick reference to the notes of his predecessors This volume covers the marginalia from the 1740 4800 diaries Providing the general public and especially those who have neither a command of Dutch nor of Japanese access to a fascinating period of Japanese history in which the Dutch played such a singular role At the same time the serious scholar wil obtain an easy key to the extremely rich holdings of the archive of the Deshima trading factory which covers a shelf length of more than forty meters in the National Archives in the Netherlands but which has been only rarely utilized by historians Japanologists or other scholars In the 1740s the Dutch East India Company VOC was in many ways at the height of its power The second half of the 18th century saw the decline of the Company from being the high and mighty and only trading company which covered from its base in Batavia Jakarta all of Asia with a network that stretched from Basra in Persia to Nagasaki in Japan to becoming a mere shadow of its former self with only a tenous hold on a few possessions in the Indonesian archipelago By the end of the century it had lost its establishments in South Africa India and Ceylon to the British and its flleet was gone However as a trading company it was dead but as a proto colonial producer it was actually doing quite well The basis of the present text are the Deshima Dagregisters their original tables of contents Vol VII 1740 1760 Vol VIII 1760 1780 Vol IX 1780 1790 Vol X 1790 1800 published in the Intercontinenta Series Nos 18 1993 19 1995 20 1996 and 21 1997 by the Institute for the History of European Expansion at Leiden University Scientific Publications of the Japan Netherlands Institute No 21

between United States and Japanese systems of education Schoolland begins by sharing his experiences as a professor at a Japanese university He then explores some of the attitudes on education that are typical of publications that seem to be fueling a race between the economic superpowers He describes some of the changing relevant characteristics of Japanese society and how these shape the education system Turning up the dark side of Japanese education Schoolland elaborates on punishments in the schools and reveals the challenge that has come forth against physical punishment the debate over students rights court battles and models of leadership Finally Schoolland shows the extent of student violence in the schools he dissects the myth of Japan as unified harmonious homogeneous society and reaches into Japanese history to show the roots of group responsibility in Japanese society    The Shogun's Daughter Robert Ames Bennet,1910 My first cruise as a midshipman in the navy of the United States began a short month too late for me to share in the honors of the Mexican War In other words I came in at the foot of the service with all the grades above me fresh stocked with comparatively young and vigorous officers As a consequence the rate of promotion was so slow that the Summer of 1851 found me at the age of twenty four still a middie with my lieutenancy ever receding like a will o the wisp into the future Had I chosen a naval career through necessity I might have continued to endure But to the equal though younger heir of one of the largest plantations in South Carolina the pay of even a post captain would have been of small concern It is therefore hardly necessary to add that I had been lured into the service by the hope of winning fame and glory    Correspondence Between William II. of Holland and the Shōgun of Japan Daniel Crosby Greene,1907    The Yankees of the East William Eleroy Curtis,1896
