

The background of the cover is an abstract, painterly composition. It features a palette of soft pinks, purples, yellows, and blues. In the upper half, there are jagged, white mountain peaks. Below the mountains, the colors swirl and blend into each other, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall effect is ethereal and dreamlike.

The Cosmology Of Freedom New Edition:

Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology Echol Lee Nix, 2010 Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology examines the methodological attempts of Ernst Troeltsch and Robert Neville for discerning Christian normativity The investigation of Troeltsch focuses on his treatment of the absoluteness of Christianity and highlights the crisis brought upon absolute religious claims by the study of the history of religions By rejecting both the supernatural exclusive apologetic of orthodox Protestantism and the evolutionary apologetic of liberal Protestantism Troeltsch insists that theology's method should be the history of religions method die religionsgeschichtliche Methode Like Troeltsch Neville agrees with historical inquiries but contrary to Troeltsch Neville advances an axiological hypothesis to thinking which is founded in valuation Neville explains the role of valuation at the imaginative level of thinking and relates it to his theory of normative truth in religious symbols This study shows that Neville begins with Troeltsch's methodological presuppositions but achieves more normative theology than Troeltsch especially on ways in which God is engaged in symbolically shaped thinking and practice Both thinkers offer creative insights for theology that make possible a critical comparison of truth claims regarding the validity of Christianity in and for a historically conscious age

Symbols of Jesus Robert C. Neville, 2001 Symbols of Jesus is a systematic theology focusing on what makes Jesus important in Christianity

Religion in Late Modernity Robert C. Neville, 2002-07-17 Religion in Late Modernity runs against the grain of common suppositions of contemporary theology and philosophy of religion Against the common supposition that basic religious terms have no real reference but are mere functions of human need the book presents a pragmatic theory of religious symbolism in terms of which the cognitive engagement of the Ultimate is of a piece with the cognitive engagement of nature and persons Throughout this discussion Neville develops a late modern conception of God that is defensible in a global theological public Against the common supposition that religion is on the retreat in late
