

'Undoubtedly the best Maxim yet. Brilliantly engineered and written with functional elegance, it moves forward with the irresistible power of a Tiger tank, and with the acceleration of a bobsleigh going down the Cresta run' TLS

The assassination attempt on the American president in London bore the hallmark of the KGB. But with Britain about to hold unilateral talks with the Russians over Berlin, why should Moscow Centre rock the boat? Major Harry Maxim smelled conspiracy. Trouble was, nobody wanted to believe him.

So the Major goes hunting, taking with him his old mentor from Downing Street days, George Harbinger, and another colleague from former times, the not so old and much more attractive Agnes Algar, MI5.

It's all highly unofficial. But that doesn't stop Maxim shooting and pistol-whipping his way from London to East Berlin via the Cotswolds, Eastbourne and Illinois, until he finally tracks down the Crocus List – a group of earnest patriots playing God and soldiers to open the country's eyes to the Russian menace...

'Addicts who have already read the two previous Maxim novels will know not to miss this one: those who have not should begin with The Secret Servant and follow with The Conduct of Major Maxim, both in Pan, to have their appetite whetted for The Crocus List, which will not leave them unsatisfied'
